The Department of Migrant Workers of the Republic of the Philippines and the Ministry of Labour and Social Affairs of the Czech Republic,

Having regard to the implementation of the Czech Republic's Governmental Programmes in the field of economic migration and acting in close cooperation with other competent national authorities of the Czech Republic - the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the Ministry of Industry and Trade and the Ministry of the Interior, as well as with the representative employers and business organizations of the Czech Republic,

Building a relationship that is founded upon institutions and mechanisms which recognize the rights and obligations of both Filipino Workers and their employers in the Czech Republic,

Confirming the interest in systemic cooperation aimed at ensuring full respect for the rights of Filipino workers in the Czech Republic in accordance with the Czech legal order,

Recognizing the need to establish a mechanism for continuing dialogue in areas of recruitment and employment of Filipino workers in the Czech Republic, and protection of their employment rights, in a manner that recognizes the interests and laws of both countries,

Acknowledging that this Joint Communiqué does not create legally binding obligations, but is intended only as a basis for consultations,

Have declared their intent to:

- Identify sectors where Filipino Workers could be employed in the Czech Republic;

- Affirm the importance of ensuring that the recruitment and employment of Filipino Workers in the Czech Republic will be transparent and will respect ethical principles and the laws and regulations of the Czech Republic;

- Explore appropriate mechanisms for the effective regular consultations on the conditions and procedures in employing Filipino citizens in the Czech Republic;

- Pursue the fair and equal treatment of Filipino Workers employed in the Czech Republic pursuant to its existing laws and regulations and develop appropriate preventive measures for this purpose.

Signed in Prague on the 14th day of March 2024, in the English language.
