All radio equipment registered under this Memorandum Order shall be under the accountability of the registrant. Registrants and/or applicants may file their registration papers with the Commission through any of its Regional Offices.

The registration of the above-stated radio equipment shall not be construed as an authority to possess, construct and/or operate the same without the corresponding permits/licenses issued therefor. Any violation pertaining to the use of such registered equipment including its use by persons other than the registrant shall be a ground for appropriate administrative sanctions and/or fines and penalties as may be imposed by this Commission.

The Commission reserves the right to reject the registration of any radio equipment if and when warranted under the circumstances in the interest of the public.
