

Title

People of the Philippines vs. Aubrey Enriquez Soria

Facts

Initial Incident:

- Date and Time: February 22, 2012, around 2:06 a.m.
- Scene: The house of Mariano Perez Parcon, Jr. and his family in Holy Family Village, Barangay Banilad, Cebu City.
- Event: Fire broke out in the house, leading to total destruction and the death of house helper, Cornelia O. Tagalog.

Circumstances and Witnesses:

- Mariano Parcon, Jr.: Woken by smoke, attempted to put out the fire but had to evacuate his family through a window fire exit. Observed that Cornelia did not respond to his calls.
- Neighbor - Eduardo Umandak: Encountered appellant Aubrey Enriquez Soria early in the morning with two bags, one of which contained items belonging to Cornelia. Found her suspicious and reported to Parcon.

Evidence Collection:

- Items Recovered from Appellant: Gray shoulder bag and its contents, including items identified as belonging to Cornelia, stolen cellular phones of Parcon.
- Testimonies:
 - Juanito Octe: Testified about the ownership of stolen items.
 - SPO4 Rey Cuyos: Involved in arrest; testified about the investigation and evidence seized.
 - Erlyn Arizo, Guamittos Logrono, Ryan Christopher Sorote: Provided supplementary information confirming circumstances of the incident.

Appellant's Defense:

- Narration: Claimed she escaped the house the previous night with Cornelia's help due to her sick children; denied setting the fire, stated Cornelia was to retrieve her things.

Procedural Posture:

1. RTC Judgment (November 16, 2015): Found appellant guilty of Qualified Arson, sentencing her to reclusion perpetua and ordering payment of damages.
2. CA Appeal (April 30, 2019): Affirmed RTC's decision with modifications, including additional moral damages and interest on awarded amounts.

Issues

1. Whether the prosecution established appellant's guilt beyond reasonable doubt through circumstantial evidence.
2. Admissibility and credibility of Sorote's testimony (news reporter) regarding appellant's extrajudicial confession.
3. Appropriate penalties and damages awarded to the heirs of Cornelia Tagalog and Mariano Parcon, Jr.

Court's Decision

1. Circumstantial Evidence:
 - Affirmed the sufficiency of circumstantial evidence.
 - Established logical chain linking appellant to the intentional burning, theft, and subsequent actions; corroborated by witnesses.
2. Admissibility of Confession:
 - Confession given freely and spontaneously despite being within police custody.
 - Sorote was not acting under police control during the interview. Appellant's detailed admission was credible.
3. Penalties and Damages:
 - Increased damages awarded from P50,000 to P75,000 for both civil indemnity and moral damages.
 - Added exemplary damages for Cornelia's heirs and Parcon.
 - Imposed interest rate of 6% per annum until fully paid.

Doctrine

1. Circumstantial Evidence:
 - When direct evidence is lacking, a conviction can be sustained via circumstantial evidence if it creates an unbroken chain pointing to the accused's guilt beyond reasonable doubt.
 - Refer to Rule 133, Section 5 of the Revised Rules on Evidence.
2. Extrajudicial Confession:
 - Validity hinges on voluntariness and absence of coercion, not solely on detention context (People v. Dacanay).

3. P.D. No. 1613, Sections 1 and 5:

- Intentional burning of an inhabited house with resultant death constitutes qualified arson with penalties ranging from reclusion perpetua to death.

Class Notes

- Key Elements of Qualified Arson:

- Intentional burning of an inhabited structure.
- Resulting in death, leading to reclusion perpetua to death (P.D. No. 1613).

- Circumstantial Evidence Criteria:

- Multiple consistent circumstances.
- Proven facts leading to a conviction beyond a reasonable doubt.
- Exclusion of other rational hypotheses except guilt.

- Admissibility of Confessions:

- Volunteerism and detail consistency are crucial for admissibility.
- Not automatically inadmissible due to detention context.

Historical Background

- The Case Context: Enhances understanding of the stringent penalties for crimes endangering lives and property under Presidential Decree No. 1613 (New Arson Law) established in the post-Martial Law era to deter severe arson cases amidst urban safety improvements and property protection norms.
