

Observance of Audience Classifications for Videograms

Read online (full-text search, related cases, audio case brief): <https://batas.org/library/04e1daa5ca92/>

This reiterates the hereunder-stated duties and responsibilities of establishments, more particularly with respect to the observance of audience classifications given by the Board to videograms. The said duties and responsibilities were previously disseminated per Memorandum Circular No. 05-87.

Other Duties:

Retailers and Dealers –

1. Retailers shall segregate their videograms when put on display in the outlet according to audience classifications given such videograms;
2. Retailers shall refuse the sale or rental of videograms bearing the R classification of persons under eighteen (18) years of age and videograms bearing P classification to persons under thirteen (13) years of age;
3. Retailers and dealers shall take care that, whenever videograms are projected for preview on television and other screens within outlets, only the age groups qualified to view such videograms are given viewing access.

Exhibitors –

1. The video exhibitors shall refuse the entry of persons under eighteen (18) years of age when exhibiting videograms classified by the Board as Restricted (R) and of persons under thirteen (13) years of age when exhibiting videograms classified by the Board as Parental Guidance (P).
2. The video exhibitor shall be liable for the exhibition of the videograms whose film contents are immoral, indecent, obscene or unjustifiably violent.

For the purpose of implementation of this Circular, the presence of all unreviewed, unclassified, unlabelled, or mislabeled videograms, or videograms which are undubbed or improperly dubbed with the appropriate VRB credits in video establishments shall constitute prima facie proof of illegal commerce in such videograms.

For strict implementation.

Adopted: 18 Oct. 1988

(SGD.) EDUARDO O. CARRASCOSO

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

ABOUT BATAS.ORG

Study smarter at BATAS.org

The Philippine bar review and law-school companion built around how your brain actually remembers.

The complete Philippine law library - free for everyone.

More than 100,000 Supreme Court decisions, Republic Acts, and executive issuances - full-text searchable, browsable by category and year, and always free. No paywall, no login. This PDF came from it.

Audio case-brief lectures.

Any decision becomes a podcast-style lecture - facts, issues, ruling, and doctrine - with read-along highlighting and a hands-free presentation mode. Study while commuting, working out, or resting your eyes.

Bar review built on the science of memory.

Complete, sequenced courses for all eight bar subjects, narrated like podcasts and reinforced with retrieval practice and spaced review - the study techniques with the strongest evidence behind them.

The full law-school curriculum.

One subscription unlocks the entire J.D. curriculum - every subject, every lesson, with your progress tracked down to the paragraph so you can pick up exactly where you left off, on any device.

Mock exams that tell you where you stand.

Timed multiple-choice exams graded instantly, with per-subject score breakdowns and focus suggestions that point you at your weakest topics first.

A study planner that keeps you on pace.

Set your schedule and BATAS tells you every day whether you are on track for bar day - and exactly which lesson to take next.

Start free at <https://batas.org>

The law library is free forever - and your first lesson is one click away.

The text of this document is an official public record and remains in the public domain. Formatting, presentation, and compilation © 2026 batas.org.

Downloaded free from the batas.org Law Library. Share it freely - the library is free for every law student, bar reviewee, and practitioner.