LAMPAS PERALTA, J.:

In a Resolution dated February 27, 2014, the Court found insufficient petitioner's Compliance and Manifestation dated February 11, 2014 for failure to file the appropriate Amended Petition, to wit:

Meanwhile, petitioners' Compliance and Manifestation dated February 11, 2014, not being sufficient for its failure to file an Amended Petition impleading the People of the Philippines not only in the caption but also in the body of the petition is merely NOTED. The petitioner is hereby directed anew to comply with the Court's directive by submitting an Amended Petition and the aforementioned SPA (executed by petitioner in favor of his alleged attorney-in-fact Pamela J. Febrer) within ten (10) days from notice, otherwise, the petition shall be dismissed.[3]

Considering that petitioner has not filed any compliance with said Resolution dated February 27, 2014, the present case is dismissed.

SO ORDERED.
