V. Responsibilities of Officials and Employees when U/CA is in the Form of Office Uniform

1. All officials and employees concerned must have their individual body measurements taken by the official modiste or tailor on the scheduled dates.

2. In case the measurements are not taken on the scheduled dates, the officials and employees concerned shall make the corresponding arrangement with the official modiste or tailor for the measurement taking.

3. The non-issuance of office uniform due to failure of officials and employees to comply with Items 1 and 2 shall constitute a waiver of the U/CA and shall be a ground for disciplinary action under this Circular for the non-wearing of the prescribed uniform.

the Committee for Office Uniforms, as the case may be. Otherwise, such claims shall no longer be entertained and shall be deemed forfeited

VIII. Implementation and Monitoring

A. Supreme Court:

1. All the Chiefs of Office, Judicial Staff Heads in the Office of the Chief Justice and Associate Justices, immediate supervisors, officers and members of the Committee for Office Uniforms shall be responsible for:

- a. implementing these guidelines;
- b. monitoring compliance with these guidelines; and
- c. reporting and submitting cases of violations to the Chairperson of the Committee for Office Uniforms for proper disciplinary action.

2. The Daily Report on Attendance and Tardiness (RAT) shall include a list of officials and employees who violated the Guidelines on the Wearing of Appropriate Office Attire/Office Uniforms.

3. The personnel of the Security Division are hereby deputized to list down the names of officials and employees who do not comply with these guidelines. The list shall indicate the date of commission of the violation and the name of the official or employee concerned, who must be informed of such violation. The list should be submitted to the Committee for Office Uniforms.

B. Lower Courts:

1. In single sala courts, the Clerks of Court shall be responsible in implementing and monitoring compliance with these guidelines. In multiple sala courts, a Committee for Office Uniforms shall be created, with the Clerks of Court as Chairperson and with two (2) members to be designated by the Executive Judge.

2. The Clerk of Court in single sala courts and the Committee for Office Uniforms in multiple sala courts shall:

- 2.1 ensure compliance with the guidelines on the wearing of office uniforms or appropriate office attire;
- 2.2 act on requests for exemption and submit report to the Committee for Office Uniforms for SC, PET and LC;
- 2.3 submit to the Committee for Office Uniforms for SC, PET and LC, the list of personnel violating these guidelines and recommend appropriate disciplinary actions thereon.
