Correspondingly, revival of services before 31 December of each year shall likewise be reflected in an Annual Report.

Operators/companies who have temporarily ceased operation for one (1) year or more but manifested their intention to continue operations after the vessel(s) or fleet was laid-up, reconstructed, repaired, dry docked, renovated, or their operations affected with legal and financial problems, among other reasons, shall still submit the required Annual Report during the unserviced year/s containing only a financial report reflecting depreciation/ amortization/ maintenance expenses. Payment of the herein imposed penalty shall not, however, excuse the operator from compliance with the required submission of the Annual Report(s).

B. Blatant and Contumacious Refusal to File Annual Report — Blatant and contumacious refusal to submit Annual Report for at least two (2) consecutive years, shall cause the summary suspension, revocation or cancellation of the Certificate(s) of Public Convenience or any existing authority to operate issued to the vessels subject matter of the required Annual Report in addition to the following penalty:
