In the interest of efficiency of service, as well as to unify and coordinate Government control and supervision of technical and professional education given in private educational institutions, I, Manuel L. Quezon, President of the Philippines, by virtue of the authority vested in me by law, do hereby designate each and every Government board of examiners as a technical advisory committee to the Office of Private Education. It shall be the duty of each committee to cooperate with the Office of Private Education by giving technical advice, recommending such changes in the educational preparation of students as may be demanded by the various professions, and undertaking such studies as may be requested by the Director of Private Education.

Done at the City of Manila, this thirteenth day of March, in the year of Our Lord, nineteen hundred and thirty-nine, and of the Commonwealth of the Philippines, the fourth.

MANUEL L. QUEZON

President of the Philippines
