

UNITED PHILIPPINE LINES, INC., PETITIONER, VS. HON. ARSENIO I. MARTINEZ, EMILIANO C. TABIGNE, AND AMANDO C. BUGAYONG, JUDGES OF THE COURT OF INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS AND UNITED STEE...

G.R. No. L-25346. August 21, 1979

Ponente: FERNANDO, C.J.

Read online (full-text search, related cases, audio case brief): <https://batas.org/library/1de537b9e005/>

FERNANDO, C.J.:

A petition for certiorari by way of review by United Philippine Lines, Inc. to nullify an order of the defunct Court of Industrial Relations certifying private respondent United Steel Workers Association of the Philippines as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent, was filed with this Court on the ground of its arbitrariness, there being a complete disregard of material facts and documents which would show that the workers involved were employees of an independent contractor. After the petition was given due course, the brief for petitioner was duly filed. Respondents did not submit any pleading. The period that had lapsed led this Tribunal to issue a resolution requiring the parties to inform the Court as to whether the petition has become moot and academic.

A manifestation was duly filed by petitioner, the first paragraph of which stated that it "is still in the overseas shipping business and still operates one vessel," but the second paragraph admitted that it "no longer operates the vessels involved in the case at the relevant time, [although it] has plans of acquiring, either by purchase or charter, other vessels in the future which may require the services of tank cleaners; * * *." [1] Such admission possesses relevance. When coupled with the manifest lack of interest of private respondent United Steel Workers Association of the Philippines, which until now has not been heard from, even petitioner merely assuming it has continued as such when its silence and inactivity could indicate the contrary, this Court does not see any necessity for resolving the issue raised. The fear of petitioner that private respondent would still be considered "as the sole exclusive bargaining agent" would seem to be illusory. What other conclusion can there be in the light of its own admission "that the vessels involved in the case are no longer operated by it." Moreover, no prejudice had been sustained by petitioner as there was a stay of the execution of the order complained of upon petitioner posting a bond of P1,000.00. It may further be noted that the question of certification, if it would arise subsequently, would be governed by the present Labor Code.

WHEREFORE, this petition is dismissed for being moot and academic.

Barredo, Antonio, Aquino, and Concepcion, Jr., JJ., concur.

Santos and Abad Santos, JJ., on official leave.

[1] Manifestation, 1.

ABOUT BATAS.ORG

Study smarter at BATAS.org

The Philippine bar review and law-school companion built around how your brain actually remembers.

The complete Philippine law library - free for everyone.

More than 100,000 Supreme Court decisions, Republic Acts, and executive issuances - full-text searchable, browsable by category and year, and always free. No paywall, no login. This PDF came from it.

Audio case-brief lectures.

Any decision becomes a podcast-style lecture - facts, issues, ruling, and doctrine - with read-along highlighting and a hands-free presentation mode. Study while commuting, working out, or resting your eyes.

Bar review built on the science of memory.

Complete, sequenced courses for all eight bar subjects, narrated like podcasts and reinforced with retrieval practice and spaced review - the study techniques with the strongest evidence behind them.

The full law-school curriculum.

One subscription unlocks the entire J.D. curriculum - every subject, every lesson, with your progress tracked down to the paragraph so you can pick up exactly where you left off, on any device.

Mock exams that tell you where you stand.

Timed multiple-choice exams graded instantly, with per-subject score breakdowns and focus suggestions that point you at your weakest topics first.

A study planner that keeps you on pace.

Set your schedule and BATAS tells you every day whether you are on track for bar day - and exactly which lesson to take next.

Start free at <https://batas.org>

The law library is free forever - and your first lesson is one click away.

The text of this document is an official public record and remains in the public domain. Formatting, presentation, and compilation © 2026 batas.org.

Downloaded free from the batas.org Law Library. Share it freely - the library is free for every law student, bar reviewee, and practitioner.