THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES AND THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA (hereinafter referred to as the “Parties”);

TAKING into consideration the laws and regulations of the Parties in force regarding enforcement of penal sentences;

DESIRING to cooperate in the enforcement of penal sentences;

CONSIDERING that this cooperation would serve the interests of the administration of justice;

DESIRING to facilitate the successful reintegration of sentenced persons into society;

CONSIDERING that these objectives can best be fulfilled by giving the respective nationals of the Parties who are deprived of their liberty as a result of their commission of a criminal offence the opportunity to serve their sentences within their own society;

HAVE AGREED as follows:

ARTICLE I

DEFINITIONS

“transferring State” means the party from which the sentenced person may be, or has been, transferred;

2.

“receiving State” means the party to which the sentenced person may be, or has been, transferred;

3.

“sentenced person” means any person who has been sentenced by a court of the transferring State, including any person who is required to be detained in a hospital or any other institution in the transferring State by virtue of an order made by a court of that State on account of a criminal offence.

4.

“sentence” means any punishment or measure involving deprivation of liberty or supervision in the community ordered by a court of the transferring State on account of a criminal offence.

ARTICLE 2

Each Party shall establish a Central Authority.

2.

ARTICLE 4

SCOPE OF APPLICATION

- for life; or

- for a period or which at least one year remains to be served at the time of the request for transfer;

4.

a sentenced person may not be transferred unless he or she has served in the transferring State any minimum period of imprisonment, or any other form of deprivation of liberty stipulated by the law of the transferring State. In the case of the Republic of the Philippines, in the absence of any law on the matter, the minimum period will be one third (1/3) of the maximum period imposed by the court, or four years, whichever is less;

5.

the judgment is final and there are no other legal proceedings relating to the offence;

6.

the transferring and receiving States and the sentenced person all agree to the transfer. However, if either Party considers it necessary in view of his or her age or physical or mental condition, the sentenced person's consent may be given by a person entitled to act on his or her behalf;

ARTICLE 5

REQUESTS, REPLIES AND PROCEDURE FOR TRANSFER

1.

(a) The Parties shall inform sentenced persons of the substance of the Treaty.

(b) The offender, desiring a transfer under the Treaty, may express his or her interest to the sentencing State or to the receiving State.

2.

The request for transfer may be made by the transferring State or the receiving State through diplomatic channels. The request shall be addressed to the authority of the requested State by the authority of the requesting State. Replies shall be communicated through the same channels without delay.

3.

Requests and replies shall be made in writing.

4.

The receiving State and the transferring State shall retain absolute discretion to approve or refuse the transfer.

5.

In making their decision, each Party shall consider all factors that may contribute to the offender's social reintegration.

6.

An offender shall be informed, in writing, of any action and decision taken by either State on the request.

7.

Either Party shall, as far as possible, provide the other Party, if it so requests, with any relevant information, documents or statements before making a request for transfer to taking a decision on whether or not to agree to the transfer.

8.

The transferring State shall afford an opportunity to the receiving State, if the receiving State so desires, to verify through an official designated by the receiving State, prior to the transfer; that the necessary consent of the sentence person or of a person entitled to act on his behalf to the transfer in accordance with Article 4 (6) of this Treaty is given voluntarily and with full knowledge of the legal consequences thereof.

9.

- (c) a certified copy of all judgments and sentences concerning the sentenced person and of the law on which they are based;
- (d) any other additional information requested by the receiving State so far as such information may be of significance for the sentenced person's transfer and for the enforcement of his or her sentence.
- (e) The above information shall be translated into an official language of the receiving State and duly authenticated.

1.

The receiving State shall be bound by the legal nature and duration of the sentence as determined by the transferring State. The receiving State shall enforce the sentence as if the sentence had been imposed in the receiving State. If however, the sentence is incompatible with the laws of the Receiving State, that State shall adapt the sentence to one which is prescribed by its own law for a similar offence.

2.

The continued enforcement of the sentence after transfer shall be governed by the laws and procedures of the receiving state, including those governing conditions for service of imprisonment, and conditional release, remission or otherwise.

3.

No sentence of deprivation of liberty shall be enforced by the receiving State in such a way as to extend it beyond the period specified in the sentence of the court of the transferring State.

4.

If the transferring State revises, modifies, or cancels the judgment or sentence pursuant to Article 6 of this Treaty or otherwise, reduces, commutes or terminates the sentence, the receiving State shall upon being notified of the decision give effect thereto in accordance with this Article.

5.

The receiving State shall provide information to the transferring State concerning the enforcement of the sentence:

- (a) if the sentenced person is granted conditional release and when he is discharged on completion of his sentence;
- (b) if the sentenced person has escaped from custody before enforcement of the sentence has been completed; or
