WHEREAS, there is need for an easy and inexpensive way by which communications from the public can reach the Constitutional Commission as embodied in Resolution No. 3 of the Commission.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, CORAZON C. AQUINO, President of the Philippines, by virtue of the powers vested in me by law, do hereby grant the public franking privileges on all communications being sent by them on or before August 15, 1986 to the Constitutional Commission, its officers and members, relative to the drafting of the new Constitution.

The Constitutional Commission, its officers, and members shall likewise be entitled to franking privileges in the discharge of their duties.

This Executive Order shall take effect immediately; and the Postmaster General shall issue the corresponding guidelines to implement this Executive Order upon receipt hereof.

Done in the City of Manila, this 26th day of June in the year of Our Lord, nineteen hundred and eighty-six.

(Sgd.) CORAZON C. AQUINO
President of the Philippines
