Pursuant to Section 27 of Republic Act No. 10086, otherwise known as the “Strengthening People’s Nationalism through Philippine History Act of 2010,” the following implementing Rules and Regulations are hereby promulgated:

WHEREAS, Republic Act No. 10086, otherwise known as the “Strengthening People’s Nationalism through Philippine History Act of 2010” was signed into law by President Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo of the Republic of the Philippines on May 12, 2010;

WHEREAS, said law takes effect on June 13, 2010 after publication in two leading newspapers;

WHEREAS, said law changes the nomenclature of the National Historical Institute into the National Historical Commission of the Philippines;

WHEREAS, the National Historical Commission of the Philippines, herein referred to as the Commission, is mandated to implement said law;

WHEREAS, Section 27 of RA No. 10086 mandates the Commission to promulgate the necessary implementing rules and regulations in coordination with the National Commission for Culture and the Arts, the National Museum of the Philippines, the National Library of the Philippines, the National Archives of the Philippines and the Department of Budget and Management.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED AS IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED that pursuant to the above provision of the law, the following Implementing Rules and Regulations are hereby adopted:

TITLE I

SCOPE, INTERPRETATION AND OBJECTIVES

RULE 1

Interpretation

ARTICLE 1. Interpretation – These rules, which shall be referred to as IRR of the Commission, shall be interpreted in the light of Section 2 of RA 10086, which stipulates that:

“It is the policy of the State to conserve, promote and popularize the nation’s historical and cultural heritage and resources. Pursuant to the Constitution, all the country’s artistic and historic wealth constitutes the cultural treasure of the nation and shall be under the protection of the State which may regulate its disposition.

Toward this end, the State shall provide the means to strengthen people’s nationalism, love of country, respect for its heroes and pride for the people’s accomplishments, by reinforcing the importance of Philippine national and local history in daily life with the end in view of raising social consciousness; reinvigorating government support for historical research; and sustaining and enhancing programs for the protection, preservation and conservation of historical relics and memorabilia, monuments, sites and other historical resources.”

ARTICLE 2. Popularization of History – R.A. 10086 underscores the obligation of the state to give utmost priority not only to the research on history but also to the popularization of history.
