ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 200, November 05, 1952

This is an administrative case against Mr. Luis N. Alandy, assistant general manager of the Philippine Charity Sweepstakes Office, brought by Mr. Bernardo P. Garcia, administrative officer of the same office, charging the former with a number of irregularities involving estafa, graft, inefficiency and incompetence, and immorality. The charges were investigated by the Integrity Board which found them not substantiated and accordingly recommended their dismissal.

In view of the findings and recommendation of the Integrity Board, the charges against the respondent are, therefore, hereby dismissed. In going over the record, however, I find that both complainant and respondent have not observed proper decorum, mutual respect and cooperation with each other to the fullest extent. I hereby enjoin them to act accordingly so that harmony may be immediately restored and the ends for which the Philippine Charity Sweepstakes Office was established may be fully served. They are therefore warned that failure to do so on their part will be sufficient justification for devising drastic methods against them to bring about the desired results.

Done in the City of Manila, this 5th day of November, in the year of Our Lord, nineteen hundred and fifty-two, and of the Independence of the Philippines, the seventh.
