

GUIDELINES FOR TELEVISION CLASSIFICATION APPROVED BY THE MTRCB BOARD ON JULY 25, 1994

Read online (full-text search, related cases, audio case brief): <https://batas.org/library/36e06a0e83ea/>

A

Children "C" Classification

Material classified "C" must not contain any matter likely to be unsuitable for pre-schoolers.

Programs that fall under the "C" classification are shows which promote wholesome positive values that support the children's formative growth.

A.1 Violence — None at all.

A.2 Sex and Nudity — None at all.

A.3 Language — The only language permitted must be correct, clear and simple.

Obscene language must be omitted.

B

General "G" Classification

Material classified "G" must not contain any matter likely to be unsuitable for children to watch without the supervision of a responsible adult.

B.1. Violence — Depiction of violence and the use of threatening language, weapons and special effects must not be likely to cause alarm or distress to children. Such must be strictly limited to the context or story line of the program and must not show violent behavior to be acceptable or desirable.

No overly realistic depictions of violence are permitted.

Any depiction of every reference to suicide not allowed.

B.2 Sex and Nudity — Depicting of and references sexual behavior must be limited and discreet, and must only be viewed in the context of a normal a healthy family life.

B.3 Language — Mild expletives like "ulol", "gago", "tarantado", "sirang-ulo", "walang-hiya", or double entendre may only be used in exceptional circumstances when absolutely justified by the story line or program context and only infrequently.

Obscene language and cuss words like "shit", "fuck", "leche", "putang-ina" and "coño" and other similarly objectionable words shall not be allowed.

B.4 Drugs — Depiction of actual intake or usage of drugs or other illegal substances shall not be allowed.

Use of legal drugs must be depicted with care.

C

Parental Guidance "PG" Classification

Material classified "PG" may contain adult themes or concepts, but must remain suitable for children to watch under the guidance of a parent or responsible adult.

C.1 Violence — Any violence depicted must be inexplicit, discreet or stylized and appropriate to the story line or program context. No graphic or gratuitous, bloody or horrific depictions of violence are permitted.

C.2 Sex and Nudity — Depictions of, and references to intimate sexual behavior must be discreet and appropriate to the story line or program context, and must not dominate the theme of a program.

Discreet portrayal of nudity may be allowed only when justified by the story line or program context.

(i.e. Therefore the bare top of the natives in "Christopher Columbus" may be allowed, but not Sharon Stone's provocative legwork' in "Basic Instinct".)

C.3 Language — Language which may be considered offensive or discriminatory may only be used in exceptional circumstances when absolutely justified by the story line or program context, and only infrequently.

Obscene language and cuss words like "shit", "fuck", "leche", "putang-ina" and "coño" and other similarly objectionable words shall not be allowed.

C.4 Drugs — Techniques for the consumption of illegal drugs must not be demonstrated, and illegal drugs must not be depicted favorably.

Use of legal drugs must be depicted with care.

C.5 Suicide — The depiction of suicide or attempted suicide must be discreet and stylized, and must not be depicted favorably as the means of achieving a desired result, or as an appropriate response to stress, depression or other problems.

Methods of suicide must not be depicted in realistic detail.

C.6 Theme — Themes detailing with important moral and/or social issues may be allowed provided they are factual, objective and balanced; and must avoid detail which may in itself seriously or offend viewers.

Adopted: 25 July 1994

(SGD.) ATTY. HENRIETTA S. MENDEZ
Chairman, MTRCB

ABOUT BATAS.ORG

Study smarter at BATAS.org

The Philippine bar review and law-school companion built around how your brain actually remembers.

The complete Philippine law library - free for everyone.

More than 100,000 Supreme Court decisions, Republic Acts, and executive issuances - full-text searchable, browsable by category and year, and always free. No paywall, no login. This PDF came from it.

Audio case-brief lectures.

Any decision becomes a podcast-style lecture - facts, issues, ruling, and doctrine - with read-along highlighting and a hands-free presentation mode. Study while commuting, working out, or resting your eyes.

Bar review built on the science of memory.

Complete, sequenced courses for all eight bar subjects, narrated like podcasts and reinforced with retrieval practice and spaced review - the study techniques with the strongest evidence behind them.

The full law-school curriculum.

One subscription unlocks the entire J.D. curriculum - every subject, every lesson, with your progress tracked down to the paragraph so you can pick up exactly where you left off, on any device.

Mock exams that tell you where you stand.

Timed multiple-choice exams graded instantly, with per-subject score breakdowns and focus suggestions that point you at your weakest topics first.

A study planner that keeps you on pace.

Set your schedule and BATAS tells you every day whether you are on track for bar day - and exactly which lesson to take next.

Start free at <https://batas.org>

The law library is free forever - and your first lesson is one click away.

The text of this document is an official public record and remains in the public domain. Formatting, presentation, and compilation © 2026 batas.org.

Downloaded free from the batas.org Law Library. Share it freely - the library is free for every law student, bar reviewee, and practitioner.