After considering the representations contained in the petitions for reconsideration filed by Dr. Jose V. Rodriguez and Gen. Ramon Enriquez, who were removed from office as Chairman and Member, respectively, of the Board of Directors of the Defunct National Rice and Corn Corporation (now Rice and Corn Administration) under Administrative Order No. 17 dated June 11, 1962, particularly the circumstance of Dr. Rodriguez' having been in the public service for more than 27 years and that of Gen. Enriquez both in the military and other branches of the government service, I am satisfied that they deserve a less severe penalty.

Wherefore, Administrative Order No. 17 dated June 11, 1962, is hereby modified in the sense that Dr. Jose V. Rodriguez and Gen. Ramon Enriquez are considered as having resigned from office effective January 25, 1962, without prejudice to their receiving whatever benefits they may be entitled to under the law.

Done in the City of Manila, this 28th day of May, in the year of Our Lord, nineteen hundred and sixty-seven.
