h)

MEAT ESTABLISHMENTS - premises such as but not limited to abattoirs, poultry slaughtering centers, cold storages that handle meat products, warehouse and other meat outlets that are approved and registered by the NMIS in which food animals or meat products are slaughtered, prepared, processed, handled, packed or stored.

i)

MEAT HANDLERS - shall mean person directly involved in the preparation, transport and sale of meat and meat products.

SECTION 4. PRIMARY IMPLEMENTATION AND IMPLEMENTORS. The following agencies of the City and National Government shall be primary responsible for the implementation of this ordinance:

The City Veterinary Services Office, particularly the Meat Inspection Section shall be responsible for ascertaining all food animals and their processing as fit for human consumption in accordance with the provisions of Republic Act 9296 (Meat Inspection Code of the Philippines) and the Department of Agriculture Administrative Order No. 19, Series of 2010 delineating the guidelines on good hygienic slaughtering practices for locally registered meat establishments. This particular provision can also be implemented by the personnel of the National Meat Inspection Service who have their own mandate to enforce such regulations throughout the country;

b)

The City Health Department, particularly the Sanitation Inspection Section shall be responsible for ascertaining the working conditions in all meat establishments whether they do not pose imminent threats to public health and safety;

c)

The City Business Permits & Licensing Office, shall see to the required permits and licenses of all meat establishments, meat brokers, butchers and meat handlers in accordance with the provisions of the city's Revenue Code;

d)

The City Legal Department, shall see to all the legal actions necessary for the violations against the provisions of this ordinance;

e)

Any other department or unit of the city government as tasked by the City Mayor; f) All the above mentioned offices, departments and agencies of the city government are mandated to cooperate, coordinate and assist each other in the implementation of the provisions of this ordinance.

MANDATORY PROVISIONS

SECTION 5. THE CITY MEAT INSPECTION REGISTRY (MIR).

The City Veterinary Services Office, specifically the Meat Inspection Section shall maintain an accurate and regularly updated registry of all meat establishments, meat brokers, butchers and meat handlers in accordance with the provisions of Memorandum Circular No. 10-2010-10 issued by the National Meat Inspection Service requiring the registry of meat establishments.

All meat establishments, meat brokers, butchers and all meat handlers are hereby mandated to register themselves voluntarily with this registry for qualification and approval before practicing their respective trades;

b)

The Meat Inspection Section of the City Veterinary Services Office shall issue every qualified meat establishments, meat brokers, butchers and all meat handlers an appropriate certificate of registration which they must be able to show to the pertinent inspectors of the city government upon demand;

c)

Any person or establishment found to be engaging in selling, handling or processing of meat products without first registering with the MIR shall be penalized in accordance with the pertinent provisions of this ordinance.

SECTION 6. POULTRY SLAUGHTERING CENTERS. There shall be allowed within the city the establishment of Poultry Slaughtering Centers, which are abattoirs or slaughterhouses primarily dealing in poultry meat. These Poultry Slaughtering Centers are subject to the same requirements as any business establishments of the same nature and to all other pertinent regulations for health and safety as enforced by the city government and other pertinent national agencies.

SECTION 7. PROHIBITION AGAINST THE SLAUGHTER OF FOOD ANIMALS IN UNAUTHORIZED PLACES. In the interest of public health and safety, the act of slaughtering, bleeding, eviscerating and cleaning of food animals in places other than duly registered Abattoirs and Poultry Slaughtering Centers shall be deemed illegal. All violators of this provision shall be penalized in accordance with the pertinent provisions of this ordinance.

SECTION 8. PROHIBITION AGAINST THE PROCESSING OF CARCASSES AND OTHER MEAT PRODUCTS IN PUBLIC PLACES. It is hereby prohibited the cutting, chopping or processing of carcasses of food animals for human consumption in the following places:

b)

Open public spaces, parking spaces or any other places which were not meant for such purposes, even if undertaken by registered meat handlers.

For all intents and purposes, the cutting and processing of carcasses for human consumption will only be allowed within the markets or other authorized establishments.

SECTION 9. FOOD ANIMAL PROCESSING WASTES DISPOSAL. All non-edible by-products of food animal processing such as blood, visceral contents, hairs, feathers, beak and claws are waste products and should be kept in appropriately marked and sealed containers before being submitted for collection by the city waste management personnel. All meat establishments are required to have an appropriate waste receptacle within their establishments in accordance with the law.

Solid waste shall be separated from liquid waste to prevent clogging of drain;

b)

Blood shall be properly collected to reduce waste water;

c)

All drainage shall always be protected or properly trapped;

d)
