

AN ACT TO CREATE SPECIAL CLASSES DURING THE LONG VACATION AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

Act No. 3285, December 01, 1926

Read online (full-text search, related cases, audio case brief): <https://batas.org/library/3f40a522da92/>

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Philippines in Legislature assembled and by the authority of the same:

SECTION 1. That whenever there are twenty or more elementary pupils or secondary students in the schools under the supervision of the Department of Public Instruction of the same grade or year who failed applying, and who satisfy the conditions specified in the next section, the school authorities may organize special classes for them during the period of long vacation for not less than six weeks nor more than eight weeks, as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. To these classes will be admitted the pupils and students who have failed with a general average of not less than sixty-five per cent or its equivalent, during the regular course immediately preceding.

SEC. 3. Satisfactory completion of the required work in these classes during the period mentioned will entitle pupils and students to be promoted from the grade or year attended during the previous year to the next higher grade or year.

SEC. 4. The organization, management, administration, and supervision of these classes may be undertaken by public educational institutions where funds are available, and private educational institutions duly recognized by the Government.

SEC. 5. The Director of Education in the case of public schools, and the directors or heads in the case of private schools recognized by the Government may subject to the approval of the Secretary of Public Instruction draw up the necessary rules and regulations governing the special classes created in accordance with this Act.

SEC. 6. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.

Approved, December 1, 1926.

ABOUT BATAS.ORG

Study smarter at BATAS.org

The Philippine bar review and law-school companion built around how your brain actually remembers.

The complete Philippine law library - free for everyone.

More than 100,000 Supreme Court decisions, Republic Acts, and executive issuances - full-text searchable, browsable by category and year, and always free. No paywall, no login. This PDF came from it.

Audio case-brief lectures.

Any decision becomes a podcast-style lecture - facts, issues, ruling, and doctrine - with read-along highlighting and a hands-free presentation mode. Study while commuting, working out, or resting your eyes.

Bar review built on the science of memory.

Complete, sequenced courses for all eight bar subjects, narrated like podcasts and reinforced with retrieval practice and spaced review - the study techniques with the strongest evidence behind them.

The full law-school curriculum.

One subscription unlocks the entire J.D. curriculum - every subject, every lesson, with your progress tracked down to the paragraph so you can pick up exactly where you left off, on any device.

Mock exams that tell you where you stand.

Timed multiple-choice exams graded instantly, with per-subject score breakdowns and focus suggestions that point you at your weakest topics first.

A study planner that keeps you on pace.

Set your schedule and BATAS tells you every day whether you are on track for bar day - and exactly which lesson to take next.

Start free at <https://batas.org>

The law library is free forever - and your first lesson is one click away.

The text of this document is an official public record and remains in the public domain. Formatting, presentation, and compilation © 2026 batas.org.

Downloaded free from the batas.org Law Library. Share it freely - the library is free for every law student, bar reviewee, and practitioner.