

AMENDMENT TO AO 93, S. 2003 AND AO NO. 2007-0008 ENTITLED, “ALLOWABLE RATES OF PAYMENT FOR HEALTH HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT ACTIVITIES OF THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH”

DOH ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 2007-0008-A, August 03, 2010

The existing policy of the Department of Health (DOH) on allowable rates of payment for health human resource development (HHRD) activities limits access to quality and suitable venue for the conduct of the said activities. With this, the comfort and quality of food for the participants were compromised in order to squeeze in the allowable rates for the residential and non-residential HHRD allowances.

Based on a quick nationwide survey conducted to assess/review the prevailing rates of hotels and other facilities used as venue for the conduct of HHRD and other human resource related activities of the DOH, the allowable rates prescribed in AO 23, s. 2003 and AO 2007-0008 were no longer reasonable to ensure quality, safe and secured venues for the participants.

Thus, Section III No. 1 of AO 93, s. 2003 and AO 2007-0008 are hereby amended as follows:

Allowable rates
from to

Residential
Php1,200.00
Php1,800.00

Non-Residential
Php 600.00
Php 800.00

With these maximum rates, proponents of the HHRD activities must guarantee that the following conditions are complied to ensure a conducive learning facility and an acceptable level of comfort:

1. Maximum of two per room
4. Provision of audio-visual system

- 2. Managed buffet
- 5. Free flowing coffee/tea

- 3. Free use of conference/function room
- 6. Free use of internet services

However, costs beyond the approved rates may be allowed in cases of important and high level activities (e.g. international meetings, national fora/summit, and the likes) subject to the approval of the Secretary of Health or his/her authorized representative.

Lastly, it is strongly encouraged that DOH facilities and other government maximize government resources.

All other orders, rules or regulations inconsistent with these provisions are repealed accordingly.
