To promote competitive conditions, the Monetary Board may further limit the equity investments in quasi-banks of universal and commercial banks to forty percent (40%).

A publicly listed UB or KB may own up to one hundred percent (100%) of the voting stock of only one other UB or KB. Otherwise, it shall be limited to a minority holding.

The existing investment of a bank in another bank under R.A. No. 7721 shall be governed by Sec. X121 insofar as it is consistent with Republic Act No. 8791.

All Circulars previously issued which are inconsistent herewith are hereby superseded.

This Circular shall take effect immediately.

Adopted: 13 March 2002
