

IMPOSING THE PENALTY OF ONE (1) YEAR SUSPENSION WITHOUT PAY ON ASSISTANT PROVINCIAL PROSECUTOR ABRAHAM F. DATLAG OF THE PROVINCIAL PROSECUTION OFFICE OF LA UNION FOR CONDUCT PRE...

Read online (full-text search, related cases, audio case brief): <https://batas.org/library/4b1c9338acf6/>

This refers to the administrative complaint filed against Assistant Provincial Prosecutor Abraham F. Datlag of the Office of the Provincial Prosecutor of La Union by Ricardo Aveno and Beatriz Ladia.

The complaint arose from the alleged bias of respondent prosecutor against the complainants' daughter, Perla Ladia, the private complainant in Criminal Cases Nos. 3573-3577 for rape (four [4] counts) and violation of Republic Act No. 7610 (one [1] count), which she earlier filed against a certain David Garcia with the Provincial Prosecutor of La Union. In their joint Sinumpaang Salaysay dated April 13, 1998, complainants Aveno and Ladia alleged, among other things, that during the investigation of Criminal Cases No. 3573-3577, respondent prosecutor uttered the words " Masyadong mabigat ang inihain na kaso ngunit ang salaysay ng bata ay mahina. Mahirap lamang kayo, nangangailangan ang kaso ng malaking pambayad sa abugado." They further alleged that respondent prosecutor had prejudged the cases in favor of Garcia by advising their daughter as follows: " Walang nangyaring panggagahasa. Kung kayo ay alukin ng P30 ,000.00 hanggang P50,000.00 ay tanggapin na ninyo. Makakatulong na sa inyo iyan at kayo ay nasa mahirap na kalagayan."

Respondent prosecutor denied the accusation, alleging that the complaint is a plain harassment suit that was prompted by his dismissal of Perla Ladia's rape charges.

On January 7, 1999, the Department of Justice instituted a formal charge for conduct prejudicial to the best interest of the service against respondent prosecutor. Shortly thereafter, hearings were conducted during which time Perla Ladia testified that respondent prosecutor indeed showed bias against her by uttering during the investigation of Criminal Cases No. 3573-3577 the words adverted to earlier. The complainants, for their part, affirmed their Sinumpaang Salaysay and corroborated their daughter's testimony.

After the requisite formal administrative investigation, the Secretary of Justice found respondent prosecutor guilty of conduct prejudicial to the best interest of the service for having uttered the words complained of and for having showed bias against Perla Ladia during the investigation of Criminal Cases No. 3573-3577.

We concur in the findings of the Secretary of Justice.

Perla Ladia positively testified that respondent prosecutor indeed showed bias against her and virtually prejudged Criminal Cases No. 3573-3577 by uttering the words — " Masyadong mabigat ang inihain na kaso ngunit ang salaysay ng bata ay mahina. Mahirap lamang kayo, nangangailangan ang kaso ng malaking pambayad sa abugado," as well as the words " Walang nangyaring panggagahasa. Kung kayo ay alukin ng P30 ,000.00 hanggang P50,000.00 ay tanggapin na ninyo. Makakatulong na sa inyo iyan at kayo ay nasa mahirap na kalagayan." Her declarations, which the Secretary of Justice found to be firm and categorical, find sufficient corroboration from the equally firm and categorical testimony of the complainants. Such declarations prevail over the testimony of respondent prosecutor, who, incidentally, adduced no evidence to corroborate his bare denial of the charges.

WHEREFORE, and as recommended by the Secretary of Justice, Assistant Provincial Prosecutor Abraham F. Datlag of the Office of the Provincial Prosecutor of La Union is hereby SUSPENDED FOR ONE (1) YEAR WITHOUT PAY, effective upon his receipt of this Order, with a warning that a repetition of the same or similar acts in the future shall be dealt with more severely.

Adopted: 18 Jan. 2000

By the President:

(SGD.) RONALDO B. ZAMORA

Executive Secretary

ABOUT BATAS.ORG

Study smarter at BATAS.org

The Philippine bar review and law-school companion built around how your brain actually remembers.

The complete Philippine law library - free for everyone.

More than 100,000 Supreme Court decisions, Republic Acts, and executive issuances - full-text searchable, browsable by category and year, and always free. No paywall, no login. This PDF came from it.

Audio case-brief lectures.

Any decision becomes a podcast-style lecture - facts, issues, ruling, and doctrine - with read-along highlighting and a hands-free presentation mode. Study while commuting, working out, or resting your eyes.

Bar review built on the science of memory.

Complete, sequenced courses for all eight bar subjects, narrated like podcasts and reinforced with retrieval practice and spaced review - the study techniques with the strongest evidence behind them.

The full law-school curriculum.

One subscription unlocks the entire J.D. curriculum - every subject, every lesson, with your progress tracked down to the paragraph so you can pick up exactly where you left off, on any device.

Mock exams that tell you where you stand.

Timed multiple-choice exams graded instantly, with per-subject score breakdowns and focus suggestions that point you at your weakest topics first.

A study planner that keeps you on pace.

Set your schedule and BATAS tells you every day whether you are on track for bar day - and exactly which lesson to take next.

Start free at <https://batas.org>

The law library is free forever - and your first lesson is one click away.

The text of this document is an official public record and remains in the public domain. Formatting, presentation, and compilation © 2026 batas.org.

Downloaded free from the batas.org Law Library. Share it freely - the library is free for every law student, bar reviewee, and practitioner.