

CLEARANCE REQUIREMENTS FOR CRAFTSMEN, SKILLED TECHNICIANS, AND ENGINEERS IN VITAL INDUSTRIES

Read online (full-text search, related cases, audio case brief): <https://batas.org/library/4c482b09d806/>

In view of the increased number of requisitions for overseas employment of identified critical skills, the following guidelines in the recruitment, processing, and deployment of such skills is hereby issued for the information and guidance of all concerned;

1. While recognizing the inviolability of an individual's right to progress and advancement, it is important that such be undertaken with minimum prejudice to the national interest. Thus, there is a need for a programmed, deliberate, and systematic skill deployment overseas, specially of identified critical skills in order not to disturb ongoing or planned development efforts

2. The following are considered critical skills for purposes of this issuance:

Aircraft Technicians and Mechanics

Instrumentmen

Industrial Electricians

Millwright and Machinist

A/C and Automotive Mechanics

Welders

Maintenance inspectors and Testers

Process Operators

HE Operators and Mechanics

Process and Production

Engineers

Plant Maintenance and

Laboratory Technicians

Ceramic Plant Workers

Drillers

3. All workers with critical skills shall be advised to secure clearance from their current employers prior to application and consideration for employment overseas.

4. Upon consideration and as part of the processing procedure, companies or agencies recruiting workers with critical skills shall submit a listing to the Administration identifying therein the skills categories and present employers of the workers.

5. The deployment of workers covered by this listing shall be on the basis of a mutually acceptable schedule to be determined by the Administration together with the local employer and the recruiting agency or company.

6. The Administration will not process critical workers not properly covered under a programmed schedule. Non-compliance with this issuance shall merit appropriate administrative sanctions.

For information and guidance.
