Sir:

I am pleased to acknowledge the receipt of your Note dated 5 February 1988 which reads as follows:

"Your Excellency,

"I have the honor to inform Your Excellency that the Government of the Kingdom of Norway is prepared to conclude with the Government of the Republic of the Philippines an Agreement which shall constitute an Addendum to the Agreement, dated 31 March 1987, regarding the Philippine Coastal Fleet Renewal Project. It is proposed that the Agreement be worded as follows:

The Government of the Kingdom of Norway shall, in addition to the Grant of NOK 6.000.000, - referred to in the aforesaid Agreement, subject to the terms and conditions stipulated therein and subject to Parliamentary appropriations, within the limit of NOK 2.000.000 (two million) commission a firm of Consultants to perform the following services:

- Assistance to MARINA with regard to enactment and application of national and international rules and regulations on maritime safety. Planning of a division to handle safety matters, including the subdivision in sections with stipulation of manpower requirements.
- Assistance in establishing procedures and routines to be followed by the new safety division.
- Training of personnel.

"If the foregoing proposal is acceptable to the Government of the Republic of the Philippines, I have the honor to suggest that the present Note, together with your Excellency's reply to that effect, should be regarded as constituting an Addendum to the Agreement, dated 31 March 1987, between our two Governments regarding the Philippine Coastal Fleet Renewal Project.

"Accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration."

I am pleased to inform you that the understanding contained in the above-quoted Note is acceptable to my Government, and that your Note above-quoted and this reply thereto shall constitute an Agreement between our two Governments effective 8 February 1988.

Accept, Sir, the assurances of my high consideration.
