BATO, JR., J.:

The Office of the Solicitor General's Motion For Extension dated 20 October 2014 praying for another extension of thirty (30) days (until 28 November 2014) to file appellant's brief is DENIED for lack of merit. As appearing from the records, the Office of the Solicitor General had been granted an extension of sixty (60) days (from 31 July 2014 or until 29 September 2014) and another extension of thirty (30) days (until 29 October 2014), or a total extension of ninety (90) days to file the required appellant's brief. Also, in the Court's Resolution dated 03 October 2014, the Court categorically declared that "No further extension to file Appellant's brief will be allowed".

ACCORDINGLY, for failure to file the required appellant's brief within the extended period, the instant appeal is DISMISSED in accordance with Section 1 (e) of Rule 50 of the 1997 Rules of Civil Procedure.

SO ORDERED.

Zalameda, and Diy, JJ., concur.
