Pursuant to Section 9 of Republic Act No. 9175, otherwise known as the "Chainsaw Act of 2002" the rules and regulations governing the implementation of the Act is hereby adopted and modified from DENR Administrative Order No. 2003-24 for the compliance and guidance of all concerned in the province of Palawan.

Chapter 1

Basic Policy, Objectives and Definitions

SECTION 1. Basic Policy - It is the policy of the State, consistent with the Constitution, to conserve, develop and protect the forest resources through sustainable forest management (SFM). Towards this end the State shall pursue an aggressive forest protection program geared towards eliminating illegal logging and other forms of forest destruction which are being facilitated with the use of chainsaws.

SECTION 2. Objectives - This Order is promulgated to achieve the following objectives:

- 2.1 To regulate the purchase, ownership, possession, sale, transfer, importation and/or use of chainsaws to prevent them from being used in illegal logging or unauthorized clearing of forests.
- 2.2 To establish and maintain a local database on the existing number of chainsaws, authorized dealers, authorized users, importation and sales thereof, among others; and
- 2.3 To facilitate the monitoring of the operations of chainsaw importers, users, and others.

SECTION 3. Definition of Terms - As used in, and for purposes of this Order, the following terms and phrases are defined as follows:

- 3.1 Chainsaw - shall refer to any portable power saw or similar cutting implement rendered operative by an electric or internal combustion engine or similar means, that may be used for, but is not limited to, the felling of trees or the cutting of timber.
- 3.2 Chainsaw dealer - shall refer to a person, natural or juridical engaged in the manufacture, importation, distribution, purchase and/or sale of chainsaws, as authorized by the PCSD.
- 3.3 Chainsaw user - shall refer to any person, natural or juridical, who uses and/or operates a chainsaw for the purpose of felling, bucking, trimming and/or breaking down into suitable sizes of timber, coconut, anahaw, other palms, and similar woody materials, as authorized by the PCSD.
- 3.4 Chainsaw owner/possessor - shall refer to any person, natural or juridical, who owns/possesses a chainsaw, as authorized by the PCSD.
- 3.5 Chairman - shall refer to the Chairman of the Palawan Council for Sustainable Development.
- 3.6 DMO - shall refer to any of the District Management Offices of the PCSDS.

3.7 District Manager - refers to the head of the DMO.

3.8 Forestland - shall refer to lands of the public domain which have not been declared as alienable and disposable lands and includes the public forest, coastal forests, forests in watershed reservations, forests in protected areas, timber lands, grazing lands, and wildlife sanctuaries.

3.9 Industrial Tree Farmer - shall refer to a person engaged in large-scale tree farming within private lands.

3.10 Legal Purpose - shall refer to activities such as tree pruning, tree survey, landscaping, timber stand improvement, and other allied silvicultural activities.

3.11 Orchard - shall refer to lands planted with fruit trees and other trees of economic value, such as, but not limited to bamboo, coconut, anahaw and other palms.

3.12 PCSD - shall refer to the Palawan Council for Sustainable Development.

3.13 PCSDS - shall refer to the Palawan Council for Sustainable Development Staff, headed by its Executive Director.

3.14 POID - shall refer to the Project Operations and Implementation Department of the PCSDS that shall supervise the registration of chainsaws.

3.15 SCU - shall refer to the Special Concerns Units of the PCSDS created by the Executive Director by virtue of PCSDS Office Memorandum dated 20 August 2003 to oversee among others, the implementation of the Chainsaw Act of 2002.

Chapter II

Scope

SECTION 4. Scope - These rules and regulations shall cover the purchase, manufacture, ownership, possession, sale, transfer, importation and use of chainsaws. The registration of chainsaws with the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) prior to the effectivity of this Order shall be considered terminated. Henceforth, all chainsaw owners shall apply for registration within three months from the effectivity of this Order. Monthly reports on issued Certificate of Registration or Permits shall be submitted by the DMO concerned to the SCU. Said reports shall be consolidated into official monthly reports to be given by the PCSDS to the Forest Management Bureau through the Provincial Environment and Natural Resources Office of the DENR.

Chapter III

General Provision

SECTION 5. Persons authorized to purchase, transfer the ownership, import, manufacture, distribute and/or sell, re-sell chainsaws - Only persons, duly authorized by the PCSD shall be allowed to purchase, transfer the ownership, import, manufacture, distribute and/or sell, re-sell chainsaws.

SECTION 6. Persons authorized to own, possess and use chainsaws - The PCSD through the PCSDS shall issue a Certificate of Registration (Annex 1[*]) to owners, possessors and/or users of chainsaws who fall under any of the following categories.

Chapter IV

Penal Provisions

SECTION 12. The following acts are punishable under this Order:

12.1 Selling, Purchasing, Re-selling, Transferring, Distributing or Possessing a Chainsaw Without a Proper Permit - Any person who sells, purchases, transfers the ownership, distributes, or otherwise disposes or possesses a chainsaw without first securing the necessary permit from the PCSD shall be punished with imprisonment of four (4) years, two (2) months and one (1) day to six (6) years or a fine of not less than Fifteen Thousand Pesos (P15,000.00) or both at the discretion of the court, and the chainsaw/s confiscated in favor of the government.

12.2 Unlawful Importation or Manufacturing of Chainsaw - Any person who imports or manufactures a chainsaw without obtaining prior authorization from the PCSD shall be punished by imprisonment of not less than one (1) month nor more than six (6) months and a fine of not less than One Thousand Pesos (P1,000.00) nor more than Four Thousand Pesos (P4,000.00).

12.3 Tampering Engine Serial Number - Any person who is found to have defaced or have tampered the original registered engine serial number of any chainsaw unit shall be punished by imprisonment of not less than one (1) month nor more than six (6) months and a fine of not less than One Thousand Pesos (P1,000) nor more than Four Thousand Pesos (P4,000.00).

12.4 Actual unlawful Use of Chainsaw - Any person who is found to be in possession of a chainsaw and uses the same to cut trees and timber in forest land or elsewhere without the proper documents as stated in this Order or as authorized by the PCSDS shall be penalized with imprisonment of six (6) years and one (1) day to eight (8) years or a fine of not less than Thirty Thousand Pesos (P30,000.00) but not more than Fifty Thousand Pesos (P50,000.00) or both at the discretion of the court without prejudice to being prosecuted for a separate offense that may have been simultaneously committed. The chainsaw unlawfully used shall be likewise confiscated in favor of the government.

If the violation under this Section is committed by or through the command or order of another person, association, partnership or corporation, the penalties herein provided shall likewise be imposed on such other person, or the responsible officer in such association, partnership or corporation.

If the offender as described in this Section is a public official, the offender shall be removed from office and perpetually disqualified from holding any public office, in addition to the above penalties.

All chainsaws confiscated under this Section shall be turned-over to the PCSDS which shall sell the same through public auction to persons duly authorized to own, possess and use chainsaw as explicitly enumerated under Section 6 hereof. Proceeds of sale thereof shall accrue to the PCSDS.

Operation and actual use of a chainsaw with an expired Certificate of Registration and Authorization (Annex 4) shall also be governed under this Section.

Out of the proceeds from public auction, 20% shall be given as reward to the informer in conformity with Section 15 hereof. The balance shall be used for operational expenses and for monitoring the compliance by the permittees with the terms and conditions of their permits or Certificate of Registration by the PCSDS.

The public auction shall be an official activity of the PCSDS pursuant to the implementation of R.A. 9175 in the Province of Palawan.

SECTION 13. Confiscation of Chainsaws - Chainsaw sold, purchased, resold, transferred, distributed, leased, rented, lent or possessed and chainsaws which are not registered or renewed under this regulation shall be judicially confiscated pursuant to a criminal case filed under Section 7, Paragraph 1 of R.A. 9175.

Chainsaws possessed and actually used to cut trees and timber in forestland as defined under Section 3 of this Order, or elsewhere without a valid Certificate of Registration and authorization, and chainsaws used as a tool or implement in cutting, gathering, collecting, removing and/or processing timber or forest products without the necessary legal documents shall be seized, and the chainsaw user shall be arrested even without a warrant. The apprehending party shall deliver the offender and the confiscated chainsaw(s) within thirty-six (36) hours, and file the proper complaint, with the appropriate official designated by law to conduct preliminary investigation and/or file an information in court.

The PCSDS shall have the power to administratively confiscate chainsaw/s which were not registered under this Order or have been used in illegal cutting of timber or forest products.

SECTION 14. Confiscation under Section 77 of P.D. 705 as amended and renumbered by Republic Act No. 7161.

Chainsaws used in cutting, gathering, collecting, removing and/or processing timber or forest products without legal documents shall be subject to judicial and/or administrative confiscation under Section 77 and 77-A of P.D. 705, as amended and renumbered by Republic Act No. 7161, and as implemented by DAO 97-32 and other subsequent forestry regulations that may be promulgated.

Chapter V

Reward

SECTION 15. Reward - Any person who voluntarily gives information leading to the recovery or confiscation of an illegally possessed or unregistered chainsaw and the resultant conviction of persons charged thereof, shall be entitled to a reward equivalent to twenty percent (20%) of the value of the chainsaw unit(s) so confiscated. The amount necessary to carry out the purpose of this section shall be included in the budget of the PCSDS.

Chapter VI

Authority of the Chairman, PCSD

SECTION 16. The Secretariat - The Special Concerns Units (SCU) of the PCSDS shall act as the Secretariat, which shall coordinate with the Forest Management Service (FMS) of the DENR Provincial Environment and Natural Resources Office and the PCSDS District Management Offices. The SCU shall also maintain a database of all records, data and accounts of all imported, registered, confiscated and auctioned -off chainsaws.

SECTION 17. Revocation of Registration and Permit - The Chairman of the PCSD or his/her duly authorized representative may revoke any Certificate of Registration or Permit/Authority previously issued to a person, partnership or corporation found violating the rules and regulations issued pursuant thereto and shall be penalized in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

Registered chainsaws may be leased, rented or lent for a legal purpose, subject to the approval of the DMO concerned, otherwise the Certificate of Registration shall be revoked by the Chairman of the PCSD or his/her duly authorized representative: Provided that in cases of force majeure or where public safety and/or animal welfare are at stake, such DMO approval shall not be required.

A lost registered chainsaw shall be reported by the owner or chainsaw user to the nearest DMO within three (3) calendar days from the date of loss. The DMO concerned shall issue a recall of the Certificate of Registration, and inform the SCU of the said recall. The SCU then shall likewise inform the Chairman of the PCSD through the Executive Director of the PCSDS of said loss and recall of registration.

In case of unserviceable chainsaws, the owner shall immediately report the same to the DMO concerned and request for the revocation of the Certificate of Registration provided that if the Certificate of Registration has expired, the owner shall notify the DMO in writing that he/she is no longer renewing the Certificate of Registration.

Chapter VII

Final Provision

SECTION 18. Separability Clause - If, for any reason, any part or provision of this Order shall be declared as unconstitutional or invalid, such parts or provisions not affected thereby shall remain in full force and effect.

SECTION 19. Repealing Clause - All orders, memoranda, circulars, rules and regulations, or parts thereof which are inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Order are hereby repealed and/or amended accordingly.

SECTION 20. Effectivity - This Order shall take effect fifteen (15) days after its complete publication in at least two (2) local newspapers of general circulation and by posting copies to all municipal buildings, barangay halls, and conspicuous places in every municipality in Palawan.

Adopted: 12 Sept. 2003
