

LETTER OF INSTRUCTION NO. 26, October 14, 1972

LETTER OF INSTRUCTION NO. 26, October 14, 1972

Read online (full-text search, related cases, audio case brief): <https://batas.org/library/75ebd9280149/>

TO: The Secretary
Department of National Defense
Quezon City

Pursuant to Proclamation No. 1081, dated September 21, 1972, and in my capacity as Commander-in-Chief of all the Armed Forces of the Philippines and in order to prevent the escape from the country of persons who are known to be actively engaged or suspected to be actively engaged in a criminal conspiracy to seize political and state power in the Philippines and to take over the Government by force and violence the extent of which has now assumed the proportion of an actual war against our people and their legitimate Government, you are hereby ordered to continue to require that prior clearance of your Department be secured by any citizen of the Philippines or foreign national who wish to depart for abroad, except those covered by the following categories:

- Members of the diplomatic corps and/or their foreign staffs;
- Foreigners who came to the Philippines as tourists;
- Permanent residents of foreign countries, whether nationals of the Philippines or not, who are returning to their respective countries of residence;
- Immigrants and their direct dependents;
- Government officials or employees being sent abroad in the service of the Republic of the Philippines, as authorized by the Office of the President;
- Scholars of the Philippine Government being sent for schooling abroad under a foreign government grant;
- Scholars being sent abroad under the auspices of international bodies like the UN and UNbodies, SEATO, ASEAN, ASPAC or under the Colombo Plan and other like Exchange Programmers, fellowships, trainee ships or courses, as approved by the Special Committee on Scholarships, National Economic Council;
- Those whose projected travel for abroad is in acceptance of an invitation to attend international conferences such as those of the UN and UN bodies, SEATO, ASEAN, ASPAC, and like conferences, under Agreements entered into by the Philippine Government;
- Officials and employees of international organizations such as the ADB, ECAFE, ILO, US AID, WHO, IAEA, FAO, UNESCO, WHO, GATT, ASEAN, SEATO and like organizations;
- Bona fide officers and crew members of international air carriers or inter-ocean going vessels or of any Philippine commercial watercraft or aircraft duly authorized to undertake foreign travels at this time or as may hereafter be authorized by the Philippine Government;
- Filipino citizens in active military service with the United States Armed Forces and their direct dependents; and

- Foreigners who are treaty traders recognized by international conventions/practices.

In all such exceptional cases, the proper government agencies shall nonetheless continue to insure the usual requisites for foreign travels, such as NBI and BIR clearances and passports and the like are complied with.

It is the essence of this Instruction to spare those enumerated under the exceptional cases above from undue inconvenience, while at the same time limiting foreign travels to extremely necessary and/or that will entail minimal or no expense to the Philippine Government.

This order shall remain effective for the duration of the present national emergency or until otherwise ordered by me or by my duly designated representative.

Done in the City of Manila, this 14th day of October, in the year of Our Lord, nineteen hundred and seventy-two.

(Sgd.) FERDINAND E. MARCOS

President

Republic of the Philippines

ABOUT BATAS.ORG

Study smarter at BATAS.org

The Philippine bar review and law-school companion built around how your brain actually remembers.

The complete Philippine law library - free for everyone.

More than 100,000 Supreme Court decisions, Republic Acts, and executive issuances - full-text searchable, browsable by category and year, and always free. No paywall, no login. This PDF came from it.

Audio case-brief lectures.

Any decision becomes a podcast-style lecture - facts, issues, ruling, and doctrine - with read-along highlighting and a hands-free presentation mode. Study while commuting, working out, or resting your eyes.

Bar review built on the science of memory.

Complete, sequenced courses for all eight bar subjects, narrated like podcasts and reinforced with retrieval practice and spaced review - the study techniques with the strongest evidence behind them.

The full law-school curriculum.

One subscription unlocks the entire J.D. curriculum - every subject, every lesson, with your progress tracked down to the paragraph so you can pick up exactly where you left off, on any device.

Mock exams that tell you where you stand.

Timed multiple-choice exams graded instantly, with per-subject score breakdowns and focus suggestions that point you at your weakest topics first.

A study planner that keeps you on pace.

Set your schedule and BATAS tells you every day whether you are on track for bar day - and exactly which lesson to take next.

Start free at <https://batas.org>

The law library is free forever - and your first lesson is one click away.

The text of this document is an official public record and remains in the public domain. Formatting, presentation, and compilation © 2026 batas.org.

Downloaded free from the batas.org Law Library. Share it freely - the library is free for every law student, bar reviewee, and practitioner.