In the interest of efficiency of service, as well as to unify and coordinate Government control and supervision of technical, professional and vocational education given in private educational institutions, I, Manuel Roxas, President of the Philippines, by virtue of the authority vested in me by law, do hereby designate each and every government board of examiners as a technical advisory committee to the Office of Private Education, and empower the Director of Private Education to call from time to time as the needs of the service may require upon any technical and/or professional employee of any department, bureau, office, agency, or instrumentality of the Government, with the consent of the corresponding Head, Chief or Manager thereof, to give advice on matters affecting technical, professional, and/or vocational education in private educational institutions, and to render assistance in the inspection of said institutions offering technical, professional and/or vocational courses.

Executive Order No. 193, dated March 13, 1939, is hereby amended accordingly.

Done at the City of Manila, this 2nd day of June, in the year of Our Lord, nineteen hundred and forty-seven, and of the Independence of the Philippines, the first.

(Sgd.) MANUEL ROXAS
President of the Philippines

By the President:

(Sgd.) EMILIO ABELLO
Chief of the Executive Office
