The Supreme Court of the Philippines, with the technical assistance of the American Bar Association Rule of Law Initiatives (ABA-ROLI), is conducting a series of regional workshops for selected court officials and personnel of the first and second level trial courts which started on June 25, 2009.

The workshops are part of the Integrity Development Review (IDR) Committee's efforts to establish and adopt a corruption prevention program in the Judiciary and are aimed to cascade the endeavors initiated by the Supreme Court to the first and second level courts.

The following judges, court officials and personnel of the first and second level courts are required to attend and participate in the Ninth Workshop to be conducted on March 26, 2010.
