

PRESCRIBING PROCEDURES FOR THE SPEEDY DISPOSITION OF ADMINISTRATIVE CASES IN BFAD

BFAD OFFICE ORDER NO. 8-A s.1993, February 10, 1993

Read online (full-text search, related cases, audio case brief): <https://batas.org/library/89bb6f86c0ef/>

Pursuant to Executive Order 26 vis-a-vis Book V of the Revised Administrative Code and Article 163 of the Consumer's Act or RA 7394, BFAD hereby provides for the rules of procedure in the conduct of administrative investigation.

1. Cases for administrative investigation shall be initiated upon a sworn complaint or a report of violation by a Food and Drug Regulation Officer (FDRO) of the BFAD duly accompanied by a record of inspection.
2. Except for complaints regarding a product contaminated with visible foreign matter, administrative investigation motu proprio involving adulterated product shall only be commenced upon a "confirmatory report of analysis."

This confirmatory report of analysis shall refer to a second report of analysis on another set of samples of the same product.

3. The complaint shall clearly state the facts showing the acts complained of, the party against whom the complaint is filed and the administrative relief sought.
4. The Report of Violation shall clearly state the acts or omissions in violation of the law, rules and regulation, the party or person who committed the violation, shall be accompanied by the record of inspection and the report of analysis with respect to adulterated and misbranded/mislabeled products.

The record of inspection shall indicate:

- 1)
the time and date of inspection;
- 2)
the BFAD license number of the establishment inspected, if any, and the validity of such License to Operate;
- 3)
the name and place or exact address of the establishment and the person who committed the violation;
- 4)
the manner of the collection of samples, if any;
- 5)
the inventory of the product from where the sample is taken and the report of analysis, whenever relevant;
- 6)

the findings of inspection; and other relevant facts.

7)

5. Upon receipt of the complaint or report of violation, a notice shall be issued to the party respondent who shall be given ten (10) days to file an answer to the complaint or report of violation.

6. The answer shall be accompanied by the affidavits of witnesses, documentary evidence or offers of settlement. Provided, that such offers of settlement shall not be considered as an implied admission of guilt and/or liability on the part of the offeror.

7. After receipt of the answer, a preliminary conference will be set, whereby the hearing officer will provide a venue for conciliation, amicable settlement and proposals of adjustments.

In the event that an amicable settlement will not be reached, hearing of the case will be scheduled.

8. Affidavits and reports signed by government officials shall be adopted as the direct testimonies of the affiants/signatories.

No witness other than the government employees who are signatories of reports or official document, shall be called to testify unless or until he shall have reduced into an affidavit his direct testimony. Depositions whenever practicable and convenient, shall be used.

9. Motions for postponement may only be granted for justifiable reasons and only when the same is filed three days before the scheduled hearing.

For reasons of illness of any party indispensable in the conduct of the proceeding, a sworn medical certificate will be required to substantiate the ground for postponement.

10. The movants for an interlocutory order shall submit and attach to their motions a draft order stating the necessary facts and grounds for the interlocutory order applied for, which the Hearing Officer/or Chief of BFAD-LICD may or may not adopt.

11. After the hearing, memoranda or position papers will be required. Such memoranda or position papers shall be accompanied by a draft of the resolution/decision which the parties seek. Such draft resolution/decision shall clearly and distinctly state the facts and the law upon which it is based.

12. After appreciating the applicable laws, rules, regulations and the evidence submitted, the BFAD may adopt, in whole or in part, either of the parties' draft decisions or reject both.

13. The pertinent provisions of the Rules of Court, the Consumers Act or RA 7394 and prevailing jurisprudence shall be applied in a suppletory character in all matters of procedure not covered by these rules.

14. This Order shall take effect fifteen (15) days following completion of its publication in at least two newspapers of general circulation.

Adopted: 10 Feb. 1993

(Sgd.) QUINTIN L. KINTANAR, M.D., Ph.D.

Director - CESO I

ABOUT BATAS.ORG

Study smarter at BATAS.org

The Philippine bar review and law-school companion built around how your brain actually remembers.

The complete Philippine law library - free for everyone.

More than 100,000 Supreme Court decisions, Republic Acts, and executive issuances - full-text searchable, browsable by category and year, and always free. No paywall, no login. This PDF came from it.

Audio case-brief lectures.

Any decision becomes a podcast-style lecture - facts, issues, ruling, and doctrine - with read-along highlighting and a hands-free presentation mode. Study while commuting, working out, or resting your eyes.

Bar review built on the science of memory.

Complete, sequenced courses for all eight bar subjects, narrated like podcasts and reinforced with retrieval practice and spaced review - the study techniques with the strongest evidence behind them.

The full law-school curriculum.

One subscription unlocks the entire J.D. curriculum - every subject, every lesson, with your progress tracked down to the paragraph so you can pick up exactly where you left off, on any device.

Mock exams that tell you where you stand.

Timed multiple-choice exams graded instantly, with per-subject score breakdowns and focus suggestions that point you at your weakest topics first.

A study planner that keeps you on pace.

Set your schedule and BATAS tells you every day whether you are on track for bar day - and exactly which lesson to take next.

Start free at <https://batas.org>

The law library is free forever - and your first lesson is one click away.

The text of this document is an official public record and remains in the public domain. Formatting, presentation, and compilation © 2026 batas.org.

Downloaded free from the batas.org Law Library. Share it freely - the library is free for every law student, bar reviewee, and practitioner.