

IN RE: REMOVAL FROM OFFICE OF ROSALIE L. PARAGUAS
MUNICIPAL JUDGE OF SABLAN, BENGUET.Adm. Matter No. _____. July 06, 1976*Read online (full-text search, related cases, audio case brief): <https://batas.org/library/91ab9286f1b7/>PER CURIAM:

The records of the Court (judiciary and bar) show that Rosalie Llorente Paraguas, 43 years of age, who was appointed on June 16, 1973 Municipal Judge of Sablan, Benguet was not among those who were admitted for the Bar Examination, took the Bar Examination, failed in the Bar Examination or passed the Bar Examination, during the years 1946 through 1975[1] (whether under her maiden name of Rosalie Llorente or her married name of Rosalie Llorante Paraguas or any combination of the said names).

The Acting Judicial Consultant upon instructions of the Chief Justice required her in writing this month to prove her qualifications as a member of the Philippine Bar and in a conference on June 10, 1976 she submitted an affidavit of June 9, 1976 (which she later tried to retrieve) asserting that she took the Bar Examination in 1956 under the name of ROSA C. BACULO (under which name she had been allegedly registered in school) which was also the name she used "when I took my oath as a lawyer when I was admitted as a member of the Philippine Bar in 1957".[2]

It is a fact, however, that there exists a person by the name of ROSA C. BACULO of Borongan, Samar who passed the Bar Examination in 1956 and was admitted to the Philippine Bar in 1957 (after having failed when she first took the Bar Examination in 1955) and is presently employed in the Social Security System, and confronted with these facts, according to the Acting Judicial Consul-tant's Report, "Judge Paraguas broke into tears and told me that it was Rosa Baculo who advised her to use that name and to lay claim to her Bar record."

Whatever may be the truth or falsity of this last allegation of Rosalie L. Paraguas, the fact remains that despite the opportunity given her, she has failed to submit any positive proof or documentation of her ever been duly admitted as a member of the Philippine Bar, and without such qualification, which is an essential require-ment for appointment as a judge under the Constitution and the law,[3] she cannot be permitted to stay one day longer in the Office of Municipal Judge of Sablan, Benguet, particularly in the light of the certification dated June 28, 1976 of the Bar Division of this Court that she is not a member of the Philippine Bar.

ACCORDINGLY, Rosalie L. Paraguas is ordered re-moved from the Office of Municipal Judge of Sablan, Benguet, effective immediately, with forfeiture of all benefits, and with prejudice to reinstatement in any branch of the government service, whether pertaining to the national or local government, including government owned and/or controlled instrumentalities, agencies and corpora-tions. Let certified copies of the pertinent records and papers be furnished the Secretary of Justice for the filing of such action or actions as may be warranted by the evidence and the facts.

Castro, C.J., Fernando, Teehankee, Barredo, Makasiar, Antonio, Muñoz Palma, Aquino, and Martin, JJ., concur.

Concepcion, Jr., J., is on leave.

---

[1] Certification of Emilio R. Rebueno, Acting Bar Confidant issued in June, 1976.

[2] Annex F of the Judicial Consultant's Report dated June 14, 1976.

[3] Art. VIII. sec. 8, 1935 Constitution; Article X, sec. 3 (2), 1973 Constitution; Judiciary Act of 1948 (Rep. Act 296) as amended, sec. 71 requiring further that "No person shall be eligible for appointment as municipal judge or auxiliary municipal judge unless he is (1) at least twenty-five years of age; (2) a citizen of the Philippines; (3) of good moral character and has not been convicted of any felony; (4) has been admitted by the Supreme Court to the practice of law; and (5) has practised law in the Philippines for a period of not less than five years or has held during a like period within the Philippines an office requiring admission to the practice of law in the Philippines as an indispensable requisite. (RA Nos. 2613, 3749 & 3828.)

ABOUT BATAS.ORG

Study smarter at BATAS.org

The Philippine bar review and law-school companion built around how your brain actually remembers.

The complete Philippine law library - free for everyone.

More than 100,000 Supreme Court decisions, Republic Acts, and executive issuances - full-text searchable, browsable by category and year, and always free. No paywall, no login. This PDF came from it.

Audio case-brief lectures.

Any decision becomes a podcast-style lecture - facts, issues, ruling, and doctrine - with read-along highlighting and a hands-free presentation mode. Study while commuting, working out, or resting your eyes.

Bar review built on the science of memory.

Complete, sequenced courses for all eight bar subjects, narrated like podcasts and reinforced with retrieval practice and spaced review - the study techniques with the strongest evidence behind them.

The full law-school curriculum.

One subscription unlocks the entire J.D. curriculum - every subject, every lesson, with your progress tracked down to the paragraph so you can pick up exactly where you left off, on any device.

Mock exams that tell you where you stand.

Timed multiple-choice exams graded instantly, with per-subject score breakdowns and focus suggestions that point you at your weakest topics first.

A study planner that keeps you on pace.

Set your schedule and BATAS tells you every day whether you are on track for bar day - and exactly which lesson to take next.

Start free at <https://batas.org>

The law library is free forever - and your first lesson is one click away.

The text of this document is an official public record and remains in the public domain. Formatting, presentation, and compilation © 2026 batas.org.

Downloaded free from the batas.org Law Library. Share it freely - the library is free for every law student, bar reviewee, and practitioner.