By virtue of the powers vested in me by law, I, FERDINAND E. MARCOS, President of the Philippines, do hereby amend paragraph seven of Executive Order Number One dated July 4, 1946, so as to read as follows:

“7. The application must be executed in person by the applicant and must include an oath or affirmation of allegiance to the Republic of the Philippines. If such application is in order, a passport must be issued unless there is a pending criminal case against the applicant in a court of component jurisdiction in which case the issuance may be denied. If, however, the applicant is able to obtain the approval of such component court for his travel abroad, then a passport must be issued as if no criminal case were lodged against him.”

Done in the City of Manila, this 21st day of February, in the year of Our Lord, nineteen hundred and sixty-six.
