WHEREAS, MTC Resolution No. 04, Series of 2008 recognizes the MTC-accredited maritime training center to conduct assessment of trainees leading to the issuance of the certificate of proficiency by the Maritime Training Council;

WHEREAS, the certified result of assessment shall be documented in the Training Completion and Records of Assessment (TCROA) Report to be submitted to the Maritime Training Council (MTC) which shall be the basis of MTC to issue a Certificate of Proficiency;

WHEREAS, the training center is entering into a Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) with maritime schools without training facilities for the conduct of practicum of students in Basic Safety as part of the BSMT/BSMarE curriculums;

WHEREAS, the training center is required to certify in the TCROA Report that the written and practical assessment is indeed conducted and the trainees are qualified for the issuance of Certificate of Proficiency;

WHEREAS, the training center is restrained to certify in the TCROA report since the theoretical aspect of BSC was conducted by the maritime school, while the practical shall be conducted by the training center.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Council resolves as it is hereby resolved that, the Maritime Training Council shall recognize the training certificates issued by the accredited maritime training centers with Memorandum of Agreement with maritime schools for the purpose of issuance of Certificate of Proficiency in Basic Safety under MTC Resolution No. 04, Series of 2008.

This Resolution shall take effect 01 June 2010.
