

JOINT DECLARATION ON POLICY AND DIRECTIONS OF COOPERATION BETWEEN THE REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES AND THE KYRGYZ REPUBLIC

Read online (full-text search, related cases, audio case brief): <https://batas.org/library/9ab663717a43/>

The Republic of the Philippines and the Kyrgyz Republic, hereinafter referred to as the Parties,

Expressing deep interest in establishing and developing equitable and mutually beneficial cooperation between the two countries,

Recognizing that further development and broadening of friendly relations between the two countries through mutual cooperation in various fields would redound to the mutual benefit of the two countries and peoples,

Sharing the common ideals of peace, democracy, human rights, and fundamental freedoms,

Being convinced that greater friendship between the Republic of the Philippines and the Kyrgyz Republic would further contribute to the cause of international peace and stability, particularly in Asia,

Have agreed as follows:

ARTICLE 1

The Parties will build their relations based on mutual respect of sovereignty, territoriality, and non-interference in each other's internal affairs, justice, and other generally recognized principles of international law, and in particular of the United Nations Charter.

ARTICLE 2

The Parties will develop cooperation in the political, economic, trade, scientific, technological, industrial, transport, cultural, and other fields on the basis of the aforesaid principles as well as those of equality and mutual benefit. For this purpose, separate agreements, if necessary, will be signed.

ARTICLE 3

The Parties will promote development of cooperation in the fields of education, culture, tourism, sports, and exchanges of information.

ARTICLE 4

Development of cooperation between the Parties will not prejudice their respective rights and obligations under any existing bilateral and multilateral treaties to which they are parties, and will not operate to the detriment of their relations with any third country.

Done at Manila on this 25th day of July 1995, in duplicate in the English and Russian languages, both texts being equally authentic.

ABOUT BATAS.ORG

Study smarter at BATAS.org

The Philippine bar review and law-school companion built around how your brain actually remembers.

The complete Philippine law library - free for everyone.

More than 100,000 Supreme Court decisions, Republic Acts, and executive issuances - full-text searchable, browsable by category and year, and always free. No paywall, no login. This PDF came from it.

Audio case-brief lectures.

Any decision becomes a podcast-style lecture - facts, issues, ruling, and doctrine - with read-along highlighting and a hands-free presentation mode. Study while commuting, working out, or resting your eyes.

Bar review built on the science of memory.

Complete, sequenced courses for all eight bar subjects, narrated like podcasts and reinforced with retrieval practice and spaced review - the study techniques with the strongest evidence behind them.

The full law-school curriculum.

One subscription unlocks the entire J.D. curriculum - every subject, every lesson, with your progress tracked down to the paragraph so you can pick up exactly where you left off, on any device.

Mock exams that tell you where you stand.

Timed multiple-choice exams graded instantly, with per-subject score breakdowns and focus suggestions that point you at your weakest topics first.

A study planner that keeps you on pace.

Set your schedule and BATAS tells you every day whether you are on track for bar day - and exactly which lesson to take next.

Start free at <https://batas.org>

The law library is free forever - and your first lesson is one click away.

The text of this document is an official public record and remains in the public domain. Formatting, presentation, and compilation © 2026 batas.org.

Downloaded free from the batas.org Law Library. Share it freely - the library is free for every law student, bar reviewee, and practitioner.