WHEREAS, under Sec. 4(f) of RA 6768, balikbayans, as defined therein, are entitled to buy one (1) item of every product category of non-consumables, whose selling price exceeds Two Hundred United States Dollars (US$200.00);

WHEREAS, balikbayans and overseas contract workers are clamoring for their entitlement to buy such duty-free imported heavy durables;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FIDEL V. RAMOS, President of the Philippines, by virtue of the powers vested in me by law, do hereby order:

SECTION 1. Section 5 of Executive Order No. 250 dated 2 June 1995 is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SECTION 5. Allowable Items in duty free shops — The range of itmes to be sold by duty free stores/outlets operated by Duty Free Philippines outside of special economic zones/freeports established pursuant to RA Nos. 7227 and 7916 shall henceforth be limited to consumables, light durables, television sets of sizes not manufactured in the Philippines and locally manufactured heavy durables.

Imported heavy durables carried by duty free stores/outlets operated in the country's international ports of entry and special economic zones and freeports shall only be sold to balikbayans, overseas contract workers and residents of the secured area of the special economic zones and/or freeports.

In the availment of this privilege, the following shall be presented as proof of entitlement:

a. Filipino citizen who has been continuously out of the country for at least one (1) year from date of last departure:

1. Philippine Passport showing date of last departure

b. Foreign passport holder:

1. Passport and any of the following:

- Old Philippine Passport
