WHEREAS, under Administrative Order No. 184, dated July 10, 1952, Provincial Treasurer Andres Agcaoili of Quezon Province was considered as having resigned effective as of the date of his suspension on August 24, 1950, by reason of his administrative case, “without prejudice to receiving whatever retirement benefits he may be entitled to under existing laws”;

WHEREAS, Mr. Agcaoili, for the reasons stated in his petition, requests that he be considered as having resigned effective on the date of the issuance of said order, or on July 10, 1952, so as to entitle him to the benefits of Republic Act No. 660 which went into effect on June 16, 1951;

WHEREAS, considering the long and continuous service in the Government of Mr. Agcaoili for more than fifty years and his satisfactory record prior to the commission or occurrence of the irregularities which gave rise to his administrative case, which irregularities did not affect his honesty and integrity, it is believed that he may be given the benefits of Republic Act No. 660;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ELPIDIO QUIRINO, President of the Philippines, do hereby modify Administrative Order No. 184, dated July 10, 1952, by considering Mr. Andres Agcaoili as having resigned effective on July 10, 1952, without prejudice to receiving whatever retirement benefits he may be entitled to under existing laws, but without right to receiving salary during the period of his suspension by reason of his administrative case.

Done in the City of Manila, this 23rd day of September in the year of Our Lord, nineteen hundred and fifty-two, and of the Independence of the Philippines, the seventh.
