Section 1. There is hereby created Task Force Bilis, hereinafter referred to as the “Task Force”, for the Ninoy Aquino International Airport (NAIA) Terminal III Project, which shall be composed of a representative from the Department of Transportation and Communications as the lead agency and the following departments/agencies as members:

- Department of Public Works and Highways
- Department of Tourism
- Air Transportation Office
- Manila International Airport Authority
- Philippine Air Force
- Civil Aeronautics Board
- Bases Conversion and Development Authority

Section 2. The member agencies of the Task Force shall designate and detail on a full-time basis personnel from their department/agency to assist the project proponent, Asian Emerging Dragon Group, Inc., address the day-to-day operational problems and concerns relative to the plans and programs with reference to the construction of the NAIA Terminal III at the Villamor Air Base, including the smooth transfer of the Philippine Air Force Headquarters to a new site.

Section 3. The Task Force shall observe the following guidelines:

There is no new office created nor is additional budget outlay appropriated on account of the creation of this Task Force; and b.

The Task Force members shall perform their respective activities as part of their normal and relevant functions without additional compensation for their designated representatives.

Section 4. The Task Force shall coordinate with and submit regular reports to the Presidential Committee on Flagship Programs and Projects.

Section 5. This Administrative Order shall take effect immediately.

Done in the City of Manila, this 23[rd] day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety Four.
