

GUIDELINES FOR THE ACCREDITATION OF APPRAISAL COMPANIES

SEC MEMORANDUM CIRCULAR NO. 3, s. 2003, March 25, 2003

Read online (full-text search, related cases, audio case brief): <https://batas.org/library/b4811f6bacbc/>

To ensure that consideration for the issuance of stock in the form of property, or the appraised value of property infused for any other purpose, is duly evaluated by competent appraisers, the Commission shall accredit appraisers of companies requiring secondary license from the SEC as well as public companies (as defined in Securities Regulation Code) in accordance with the following guidelines:

SEC. 1. Only institutional appraisers accredited by the Commission shall be engaged by companies accepting property as consideration for the issuance of their stocks, and for other purposes where appraisal of property is considered/required.

SEC. 2. The following are the criteria for the accreditation:

- a.) The appraisal company must be registered with the Commission and a licensed appraiser by the Department of Trade and Industry.
- b.) The certifying officer of the appraisal company must be a professional appraiser duly licensed by the Department of Trade and Industry and an officer/member of good standing of any registered association of appraisal companies;
- c.) At the time of application the company or its certifying appraiser must have a minimum experience of 5 years in the appraisal business;
- d.) The company must have rendered professional services to at least one (1) commercial bank and two (2) public companies;
- e.) The appraisal company or any of its directors/partners/officers must have no adverse judgment on any administrative, civil or criminal case involving its appraisal business;
- f.) The appraisal company must be solvent and in sound financial condition such that current and solvency ratios shall be at least 1:1 while debt-equity ratio is a maximum of 3:1.

SEC.3. The applicant appraiser shall submit to the Commission, the following:

- a.) Notarized application for accreditation;
- b.) Company profile indicating the history, scope of services of the appraiser company, and the bio-data of executive/certifying officers;
- c.) Copy of license issued by DTI;
- d.) Certificate of good standing issued by any registered association of appraisal companies;
- e.) List of past and present clientele;
- f.) Certifications from at least one (1) commercial bank and two (2) public companies that they have engaged the services of the appraisal company;

(g) Notarized certification of the appraisal company signed by its President that the company meets all the qualification requirements under Sec. 2; that it has not been declared liable by the Commission or by any competent court for violation of the Corporation Code or the Securities Regulation Code and that the company or any of its directors/executive officers has no adverse judgment on any administrative, civil or criminal case involving its appraisal business;

h.) Latest audited financial statements.

SEC.4. The fee for the application for initial or renewal accreditation shall be Five Thousand (P5,000.00) Pesos.

SEC. 5. The accreditation of an appraisal company shall expire or it shall be automatically delisted after a period of two (2) years unless renewed before said date.

SEC. 6. This accreditation shall be withdrawn after due notice on reasonable grounds as determined by the Commission.

Adopted: 25 March 2003

(SGD.) LILIA R. BAUTISTA
Chairperson

ABOUT BATAS.ORG

Study smarter at BATAS.org

The Philippine bar review and law-school companion built around how your brain actually remembers.

The complete Philippine law library - free for everyone.

More than 100,000 Supreme Court decisions, Republic Acts, and executive issuances - full-text searchable, browsable by category and year, and always free. No paywall, no login. This PDF came from it.

Audio case-brief lectures.

Any decision becomes a podcast-style lecture - facts, issues, ruling, and doctrine - with read-along highlighting and a hands-free presentation mode. Study while commuting, working out, or resting your eyes.

Bar review built on the science of memory.

Complete, sequenced courses for all eight bar subjects, narrated like podcasts and reinforced with retrieval practice and spaced review - the study techniques with the strongest evidence behind them.

The full law-school curriculum.

One subscription unlocks the entire J.D. curriculum - every subject, every lesson, with your progress tracked down to the paragraph so you can pick up exactly where you left off, on any device.

Mock exams that tell you where you stand.

Timed multiple-choice exams graded instantly, with per-subject score breakdowns and focus suggestions that point you at your weakest topics first.

A study planner that keeps you on pace.

Set your schedule and BATAS tells you every day whether you are on track for bar day - and exactly which lesson to take next.

Start free at <https://batas.org>

The law library is free forever - and your first lesson is one click away.

The text of this document is an official public record and remains in the public domain. Formatting, presentation, and compilation © 2026 batas.org.

Downloaded free from the batas.org Law Library. Share it freely - the library is free for every law student, bar reviewee, and practitioner.