WHEREAS, previous NTC Memorandum Circulars regarding the registration of illegally held/unregistered radio communications equipment under a schedule of liberal penalties, permitted during their respective effectivity periods the registration of radio transceivers/transmitters and their accessories in order to allow holders to legitimize their possession;

WHEREAS, notwithstanding several registration periods and extensions thereof, there still exist numerous unregistered radio transceivers/transmitters.

Now, THEREFORE, premises considered, it is hereby directed that individuals, companies and/or entities, except radio dealers and manufacturers, shall be allowed to register their radio transceivers/transmitters and accessories in accordance with the following guidelines:

1. The subsequent licensing of registered radio transceivers/transmitters shall be in accordance to existing rules and regulations and the usual licensing procedures for any radio service.
