- The Joint Committee shall formulate and submit policy recommendations with a view to promoting the development of agriculture of both countries. It shall also be responsible for planning, implementing, monitoring and evaluating projects identified under this Memorandum of Understanding.

- The Joint Committee shall meet every two (2) years alternately in the Philippines and Brazil with a representative from the host country as Chairman of the meeting. Whenever necessary, an interim meeting may be held subject to the agreement between the Parties and arrangements made through diplomatic channels.

ARTICLE V

FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS AND OTHER FORMS OF ASSISTANCE

The Parties will be responsible for the expenses related to the activities within this Memorandum of Understanding, unless when agreed differently.

ARTICLE VI

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

- According to national legislation and international agreements in force in both countries, the Parties shall adopt the appropriate measures to protect the intellectual property rights arising under the implementation of this Memorandum of Understanding.

- The conditions for the acquisition, maintenance and commercial exploitation of intellectual property rights over possible products and/or processes that might be obtained under this Memorandum of Understanding will be defined in the specific programs, contracts or working plans.

- The specific programs, contracts or working plans shall also set out the conditions regarding the confidentiality of information whose publication and/or disclosure might jeopardize the acquisition, maintenance and commercial exploitation of intellectual property rights obtained under this Memorandum of Understanding.

- The specific programs, contracts or working plans shall establish, where applicable, the rules and procedures concerning the dispute settlement on intellectual property matters under this Memorandum of Understanding.

ARTICLE VII

DISPUTE SETTLEMENT

Any dispute arising out of the interpretation, application or implementation of this Memorandum of Understanding shall be settled amicably by consultation or negotiation between the Parties.

ARTICLE VIII

ENTRY INTO FORCE

This Memorandum of Understanding shall enter into force on the date of the later written notification by the Parties through diplomatic channels, indicating compliance with their respective domestic requirements for its entry into force.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENTS

Either Party may request in writing through diplomatic channels, a revision or amendment of this Memorandum of Understanding. Any revision or amendment agreed upon by the Parties shall enter into force on such date as may be determined by the Parties taking into account their respective domestic requirements and shall form an integral part of this Memorandum of Understanding.

ARTICLE X

DURATION AND TERMINATION

- This Memorandum of Understanding shall remain in force for a period of five (5) years and shall be extended automatically for a subsequent period of five years thereafter, unless either Party serves written notice to the other Party of the intention to terminate it at least six (60 months prior to the intended termination.

- The termination of this Memorandum of Understanding shall not affect the validity or duration of any project, contract, arrangement or activity done pursuant to this Memorandum of Understanding until the completion of such project, contract, arrangement, or activity.
