WHEREAS, subsequent to the issuance on December 15, 1954 of Executive Order Numbered Eighty-six creating the Municipality of Botocan in the Province of Laguna, the comment of the Secretary of Finance pertinent thereto was received which states that, if the proposed separation of the barrios named in Executive Order No. 86 which would constitute the new Municipality of Botocan is effected, the income of P44,013.26 of the mother municipality of Majayjay will be reduced to P26,330.47, and will consequently lower its classification from second to third class; and that, in view of the loss in revenue (P17,683.29), the said Municipality of Majayjay will not be able to maintain creditably its present municipal government unless a reduction of its personnel is resorted to;

WHEREFORE, and public welfare and interest so requiring, Executive Order Numbered Eighty-six dated December 15, 1954, herein mentioned is hereby revoked.

The revocation herein made takes effect immediately.
