Adopted: 22 November 2017

Date Filed: 04 January 2018

The LTO is in receipt of a letter from Atty. Sonia S. Tapales, the Chief of Import Regulation Division of the Department of Trade Industry (DTI), informing this Office that they continue to receive information and there are rebuilt units being registered without DTI endorsement.

In connection thereto, you are hereby reminded and directed to strictly comply with Section VII of the Memorandum of Agreement (MOA)[*] dated 16 November 2006, entered into by and among the DTI, LTO and the BOC which provides that the LTO shall only allow registration of rebuilt truck/buses with DTI – Regional Office endorsements, in addition to the other documents/procedures as may be required by the LTO.

Failure to observe the abovementioned provision of the MOA shall result to disciplinary/administrative sanctions.

For strict compliance.
