Sir:

I refer to recent discussions in Washington relating to the Bilateral Agreement on Trade in Cotton Textiles between the United States of America and the Philippines effected by an exchange of notes at Washington on February 24, 1964.

Because of the special, circumstances mentioned in these discussions, the Government of the United States of America proposes that during calendar year 1967:

Insofar as possible, this reduction shall be made in exports in categories 9, 22, 26 and 62.
2. Within the 1967 limit for non-traditional categories provided for in paragraph 1 above, the exports of cotton textiles from the Philippines to the United States shall not exceed the following amounts in the following categories:

Category

9

1,000,000 square yards

22

1,000,000 square yards

square yards may be in duck)

61

1,550,000 dozen

62

If the foregoing proposal is acceptable to the Government of the Republic of the Philippines, my Government will consider this note and your affirmative reply as constituting an agreement between our two Governments further amending the cotton textile agreement of February 24, 1964, as amended.

Accept, Sir, the renewed assurances of my high consideration.
