In order to address the concern of horseowners and trainers that, at present, their horses are not in their competitive groups in the Class-Division and at the same time, there is a moratorium in the reclassification of horses in the Class-Division which is in effect up to June 6, 2002, the Philracom Board resolved to approve in its meeting on April 19, 2002 the resumption of races in the Winners Division for thirteen (13) racing weeks, starting May 15, 2002 up to August 11, 2002, provided that a horse that wins in this grouping shall automatically be elevated to the next higher group.

For your information and guidance.

Adopted: 25 April 2002
