WHEREAS, in view of the volatile situation in the Gulf area which affected the flow of crude oil into the country, the Energy Operations Board issued Memorandum Circular No. 10-01, s. of 1990, directing the oil companies to reduce by 10 percent (10%) all sales and deliveries to their customers, i.e., resellers, distributors and marketers, directly withdrawing their petroleum products requirements from said oil companies;

WHEREAS, to complement said mandated reduction in petroleum products deliveries and in compliance with Section 7 of Executive Order no. 433, the Energy Regulatory Board issued Resolution No. 90-15 as amended by Resolution No. 90-15-A prescribing the following operating hours of petroleum products retail outlets (gasoline stations):

Mondays thru Saturdays 5:00 A.M. to 9:00 P.M.

Sundays and Public Holidays 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.

WHEREAS, on December 19, 1990, the Energy Operations Board issued Memorandum Circular No. 12-04, Series of 1990 lifting the said 10% cut back on sales and deliveries of petroleum products;

WHEREFORE, in view of all the foregoing, this Board (ERB) hereby lifts the operating hours of petroleum products retail outlets as prescribed under ERB Resolution No. 90-15-A.

Let copies of this resolution be furnished the oil companies and the Presidents of all dealers' associations of the oil companies who are directed to disseminate the same within their respective areas of operation. Likewise, let copies hereof be furnished the Energy Operations Board, the Department of National Defense, the Department of Local Governments and the Department of Trade and Industry for their information and guidance.
