All concerned are hereby advised that OFFICIAL GENERIC LABELS of veterinary drugs and products with discrepancies and not in conformity with the above-named Orders are allowed to be used only up to December 1, 1993. From January 1, 1994, the above Orders shall be strictly enforced. Further, this is to remind you that effective September 1, 1993 stick-ons and other remedial labellings are no longer allowed on all veterinary drugs and products water solubles and premixes.

Likewise, all concerned are required to submit the final draft of their labels with the desired color and designs for approval before printing.

For your guidance and strict compliance.
