The National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA) hereby promulgates the Amended Rules and Regulations of 2007 to implement Republic Act No. 7356, otherwise known as the “Law Creating the National Commission for Culture and the Arts.”

SECTION 1. Short Title – These rules shall be known as the “Amended Implementing Rules and Regulations of 2007 of Republic Act No. 7356 entitled, An Act creating the National Commission for Culture and the Arts, Establishing a National Endowment Fund for Culture and the Arts, and for other Purposes.”

Rule 1

Declaration of Principles

SECTION 2. Culture as a Human Right – Culture is a manifestation of the free- dom of belief and of expression, and is a human right to be accorded due respect and allowed to flourish.

SECTION 3. National Identity – Culture reflects and shapes values and beliefs and emulates the aspirations of the people’s cultural wisdom, thereby defining a people’s national identity. A Filipino national culture that mirrors Philippine economic, social, and political life shall be evolved, promoted and conserved.

SECTION 4. Culture of the People – The Filipino national culture shall be:

- 4.1 Independent, free of political and economic structures which inhibit cultural sovereignty;
- 4.2 Equitable, effectively creating and distributing cultural opportunities and correcting the imbalance that has long prejudiced the poor and other marginalized sectors who have the least opportunities for cultural development and educational growth;
- 4.3 Dynamic, continuously developing in pace with scientific, technological, social, economic and political changes, both in national and international levels;
- 4.4 Progressive, developing the vast potential of all Filipinos as responsible change agents of society; and
- 4.5 Humanistic, ensuring the freedom and creativity of human spirit

SECTION 5. Culture by the People – The Filipino National Culture shall be evolved and developed by the people themselves according to their own original and ancestral wisdom.

National cultural policies and programs shall be formulated which shall be:

- 5.1 Pluralistic, fostering deep respect for the cultural identity of each locality, region or ethno-linguistic locality, as well as elements assimilated from other cultures through the natural process of acculturation;
- 5.2 Democratic, encouraging and supporting the participation of the vast masses of the Filipino people in its programs and projects;

5.3 Non-partisan, open to all people and institutions, regardless, of creed, affiliation, ideology, ethnic origin, age, gender, or class, with no organized group or sector having monopoly of its services.

5.4 Liberative, having concern for the decolonization and emancipation of the Filipino psyche in order to ensure the full flowering of Filipino culture; and

5.5 Nationalistic, the bonding and harmony of people based on the common recognition of cultural heritage.

SECTION 6. Culture for the People – The creation of artistic and cultural products shall be promoted and disseminated to the greatest number of our people. The level of consciousness of the Filipino people and about their own cultural values in order to strengthen the Filipino culture and to instill nationhood and cultural unity shall be raised formally through the educational system and informally through extra-scholastic means, including the use of traditional as well as modern media of communication.

SECTION 7. Preservation of the Filipino Heritage – It is the duty of every citizen to preserve and conserve the Filipino historical and cultural heritage and resources. The retrieval and conservation of artifacts of Filipino culture and history shall be vigorously pursued.

Rule II

Organization of the National Commission for Culture and the Arts and the Establishment of the National Endowment Fund

SECTION 8. Creation of the National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA) – The NCCA is hereby created to:

13.4 Extend recognition of artistic and intellectual achievement through awards, grants and services to artists and cultural groups which contribute significantly to the Filipino's cultural legacy;

13.5 Promote the interests and welfare of artists and cultural workers by protecting their rights to intellectual and artistic properties as well as by associations which shall promote and protect the economic and moral rights of artists over the country;

13.6 Encourage and support research into Philippine artistic traditions in the hope to revive, popularize, and preserve the artistic traditions which maybe adopted for the creation of contemporary forms; provided, that the adoption does not result in the mockery of the tradition;

13.7 Adopt measures and recommend legislations to protect the intellectual and artistic rights and properties of Filipino artists, cultural workers and other matters concerning culture and arts; and

13.8 Explore and adopt the best possible structure of relationship between the public and private sector at the local level, taking into account varying socio-cultural situations.

SECTION 14. Promotion of Historical and Cultural Heritage – to conserve, promote and protect the nation’s historical and cultural heritage, the Commission shall:

14.1 Support, monitor and systematize the retrieval and conservation of artifacts of Filipino culture and history and all Filipino cultural treasures from all over the archipelago and other countries;

14.2 Encourage and support the study, recognition and preservation of endangered human cultural resources such as weavers, chanters, dancers, and other craftsmen as well as the conservation and development of such artistic, linguistic and occupational skills and talents as are threatened with extinction;

14.3 Support and promote the establishment and preservation of cultural and historical monuments, markers, names and sites;

14.4 Encourage and support the establishment and/or maintenance all over the country of museums, libraries, archives, private or public, as repositories, respectively of all cultural/historical artifacts and artistic creation, printed works, archival records and all other materials indispensable to the study and evaluation of Filipino culture and history;

14.5 Encourage the private sector to establish and maintain private museums, libraries, learning centers, and archives;

14.6 Encourage and support scholarly research into, and documentation of, Philippine cultural traditions, arts and crafts, as well as significant cultural movements, achievements and personalities especially in the literary, visual and performing arts; and in mass media, as well as the various aspects of Filipino culture;

14.7 Encourage and support the writing of Philippine history and pre-history, and Cultural Studies from multiple perspectives that will help in the creation of a national identity and give support to activities such as but not limited to conferences, congresses, fora, and symposia on Philippine History;

14.8 Encourage and support scholarly and scientific research and anthropological and archeological studies, and the publication thereof; and

14.9 Encourage, support and systematize the audio-visual documentation of Filipino cultural expressions.

SECTION 15. Dissemination of Artistic and Cultural Works – To ensure the widest dissemination of artistic and cultural works and products among the greatest number of people across the country and overseas for their appreciation and enjoyment, and in cooperation with the Department of Education, Tourism, Interior and Local Government, Foreign Affairs and all other concerned agencies, public and private, the Commission shall:

15.1 Cause to be established and developed a culture and arts education program at all levels of the educational system, public and private, to ensure the study of culture and arts across the school curriculum;

15.2 Encourage and support programs such as, but not limited to, publication, exhibition, production, performance, staging, reproduction, and promotion of original Filipino creations;

SECTION 60. Meetings of the National Committees – A NC meeting may be called by its Head or in his/her absence and only upon urgent matters by the Vice-Head once every three (3) years at a general assembly or in a committee membership meeting. The notice of the meeting shall be transmitted to all members not later than one month prior to the assembly or meeting at a place and time approved by the Commission.

Rule XI

The Executive Council (ExeCon)

SECTION 61. Composition – The Executive Council (ExeCon) shall be the working group constituted to conduct the business of each National Committee (NC). Each ExeCon shall consist of thirteen (13) members, who shall be elected by the recognized members of the NCs in accordance with the pertinent guidelines as approved by the Commission. Any exception to the general rules shall be subject for the appropriate action of the Commission, and shall be promulgated through Board Resolution: Provided that the Commission shall not approve any request to increase the ExeCon membership to more than fifteen (15) or decrease the number to less than seven (7).

SECTION 62. Functions – The ExeCon Members shall have the following functions:

62.1 Formulate the rules and regulations affecting the policy on formation, composition, operations and dissolution of National Committees, subject to the approval of the Commission.

62.2 Initiate studies and make policy and project recommendations in their respective areas for consideration of the Commission, advise the Commission on policy matters including but not limited to the use of grant funds, and on other related matters such as pending bills in Congress on culture and the arts; and initiate and/or propose bills relating to culture and the arts, and advocate and/or lobby for the passage thereof.

62.3 Draw up annual, medium and long-term plans for their respective areas of concern and standardize and formulate criteria for prioritizing programs/projects/activities.

62.4 Evaluate the impact of the annual programs, projects and grant assistance submitted by proponents in relation to the committee's annual, medium and long-term plans; and

62.5 Assist in identifying individual artists and cultural workers, non-government organizations, academic institutions and other organizations that may be able to contribute to the work of the NCCA; and secretary who shall be elected for terms of three (3) years, reckoned from July 1, 1992 for as long as he/she remains a member of the National Committee, and shall not serve for more than two consecutive terms.

The ExeCon officers and members who fail to attend two (2) regular meetings in a year shall be called and notified for replacement. Replacement shall be done in accordance with the policy of the concerned NC and/or in accordance with the general policy of the NCCA.

SECTION 64. Term of Office – In order to ensure broad representation among artists and cultural workers, the officers and members of the ExeCon shall be elected for a term of three (3) years, reckoned from July 1, 1992 for as long as he/she remains a member of the ExeCon, and shall not serve for more than two consecutive terms.

The filling up of an unexpired term of a departing officer shall already be considered one full term in reckoning his/her maximum number of terms. The elected ExeCon Head of the NC shall represent the committee in the Subcommission.

The Commission, however, may authorize measures, pursuant to law or the rules, to ensure a smooth transition in cases where the terms of office of all the members of the ExeCon of the NC expire simultaneously.

SECTION 65. Regular Meetings of the ExeCon – The ExeCon shall have four regular meetings, one (1) inter-committee regional meeting, and one (1) general assembly. The Committee meetings shall be called by its Head at a place and time approved by the ExeCon Members.

Only the officially designated ExeCon Members shall attend the regular committee meetings.

SECTION 66. Special Meetings – A Special Meeting may also be called by the Head or in his/her absence by the Vice-Head only for valid and urgent reasons and shall be held at a time and place approved by the Executive Director.

SECTION 67. Quorum – Majority of the ExeCon members shall constitute a quorum to transact business.

SECTION 68. Grounds for Removal – Subject to due process, an ExeCon member may be removed before the expiration of his/her term on a vote of two-thirds of the entire Executive Council, on any of the following grounds:

SECTION 72. Guidelines in the Utilization of the NEFCA – A National Endowment Fund for Culture and the Arts (NEFCA or Fund) is hereby established exclusively for Philippine art and cultural programs, projects and activities all over the country.

a) The contribution to the fund shall be the following:

1. The amount of One Hundred Million Pesos (P100,000,000.00) as seed capital shall be taken from the Philippine Amusement and Gaming Corporation (PAGCOR) fund Five million pesos (P5,000,000.00) per month for twenty (20) months: Provided, That no grant shall be awarded by the Commission except from the interest drawn from the funds: Provided further, that no grant shall be awarded until after one (1) year from the organization of the Fund.
2. Ten percent (10%) of the travel tax collection, the share to be taken from the annual allotment of the travel tax given to the Philippine Tourism Authority.

b) Government corporations are hereby authorized to give grants to the Fund at their discretion, but not to exceed fifteen percent (15%) of their unimpaired surplus;

c) The private portion of the Fund shall be raised from donations and other conveyances including funds, materials, property, and services, by gratuitous title;

d) Contribution to the Fund shall be deductible for income tax purposes in accordance with the provisions of Section 29 (h)(2)(A) of the National Internal Revenue Code;

e) For the sound and judicious management of the Fund, the Commission shall appoint a reputable government-accredited investment institution as Fund Manager subject to guidelines promulgated by the Commission;

f) The Commission shall be the administrator of the Fund, and as such, shall prepare implementing guidelines and decision-making mechanisms, subject to the following:

1. Unless otherwise stipulated by the private donor, only earnings of private contributions shall be used;
2. No part of the seed capital of the Fund, including earnings, thereof, shall be used to underwrite overhead expenses for administration;
3. Not more than twenty percent (20%) of the Government's contribution to the Fund shall be devoted to administrative functions of the Commission; at least ten percent (10%) shall be earmarked as part of the Fund's capital, and the balance, i.e. seventy percent (70%) shall be used for its programs and projects;
4. The Commission shall organize a separate staff, administratively independent of the Secretariat, to be headed by a comptroller appointed by and directly responsible and accountable to the Commission;
5. There shall be an external auditor to perform annual audit of its performance;
and
6. The Fund shall be exempt from pre-audit by the Commission on Audit.

SECTION 73. Fund Management – The Commission shall appoint a reputable government-accredited investment institution as Fund Manager for the sound and judicious management of the NEFCA, subject to guidelines promulgated by the Commission.

Rule XV

Tax-and-Duty-Exemption

SECTION 74. Definition – The Commission shall be exempt on all its income and duty obligations. All materials that are necessary and are not manufactured or produced locally for use of the Filipino artist shall be tax- or duty-free. Toward this end, the Commission, through the Chair, may enter into Memoranda of Agreement or similar formal arrangements with the Department of Finance, Bureau of Internal Revenue, Bureau of Customs and other agencies that will facilitate the implementation of this Rule.

Rule XVI

Revolving Fund

SECTION 75. Source – The income of the Commission not exceeding the amount of Five Hundred Thousand Pesos (P500,000.00) derived from the proceeds of sales of cultural items or publications shall be constituted as a revolving fund for the fabrication of such items or printing of such publications. Sales proceeds in excess of the aforementioned amount shall be remitted to the National Treasury and shall accrue to the General Fund.

Rule XVII

Conflict of Interest

SECTION 76. Conflict of Interest – The officers and employees of the Secretariat, as full time government employees, shall not engage in activities that may reduce their effectiveness in discharging their responsibilities, always bearing in mind that they owe an undivided duty and loyalty to the people.

Members of the NCCA community shall act with outmost impartiality. They shall desist from participating in any way in the analysis, evaluation or approval of any project or grant application in which they have a direct or indirect interest, whether favorable or adverse, and whether the project application is made by them or by organizations of which they are directors, trustees or officers.

In situations where there is possibility of conflict of interest, the NCCA community member concerned shall declare in writing the nature of the possible conflict of interest and shall desist from participation in any discussion of the proposal. In such cases, the Commission shall study the circumstances of the case and may conclude that there is no conflict of interest or may decide using its discretion, to waive the provisions on conflict of interest in the particular case.

Rule XVIII

Miscellaneous Provisions

SECTION 77. Amendments – Amendments to these Implementing Rules and Regulations may be adopted by the Commission after due consultation, as far as practicable, with all the sectors concerned; Provided that nothing in this document shall be understood to limit the authority of the Commission to approve policies, procedures and rules that are not inconsistent with the spirit and intent of R.A. No. 7356.

Rule XIX

Repealing Clause

SECTION 78. Repealing Clause – All rules and regulations approved by the Commission regarding the implementation of R.A. No. 7356, which are inconsistent with these Rules and Regulations, are hereby repealed or amended accordingly.

Rule XX

Separability Clause

SECTION 79. Separability Clause – Any portion or provision of these Rules and Regulations that are declared by the Court as in contravention of R.A. No. 7356 shall not have the effect of nullifying other portions or provisions hereof where such portions or provisions can continue to subsist and be given in their entirety.

Rule XXI

Effectivity Clause

SECTION 80. Effectivity Clause – These Implementing Rules and Regulations shall take effect 15 days after publication in the Official Gazette or in a newspaper of general circulation.
