WHEREAS, most of the sugar centrals in the Philippines are still undertaking the rehabilitation of their facilities, including the buildings and dwelling houses of their laborers, which were damaged during the last war, and are incurring heavy expenditures for this purpose;

WHEREAS, some of those centrals have been operating at a loss, and others at profits which are inconsiderable; and

WHEREAS, the imposition of the additional progressive taxes on these centrals would be unduly oppressive and, in a few instances, even confiscatory in effect;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Carlos P. Garcia, President of the Philippines, do hereby waive the additional progressive taxes to be paid by the proprietors and operators of the following sugar mills for the 1957–1958 crop under section 2 of Commonwealth Act No. 567:

- Ormoc Sugar Company, Inc., provided that the central shall continue to give its planters transportation allowances as provided for in the revised milling contract between the central and its planters;
- Bogo–Modollin Milling Co., Inc., provided that improvements being undertaken to increase the capacity of the mill and factory shall be continued and that the increase in the planters' participation 1 + 1/2% given since 1952–1953, thus making the planters' participation 57 + 1/2%, in addition to the escalator clause giving the planters 60% of all sugar and molasses manufactured from and including the 131st milling day, shall continue to be enforced;
- Asturias Sugar Central, Inc., provided that the participation shall continue to be increased to 57 + 1/2.
- Central Azucarera del Norte;
- Nind Sugar Company, provided that 55% of the equivalent of the progressive tax shall be paid to the central planters as additional benefits.

Done in the City of Manila, this 17th day of January, in the year of Our Lord, nineteen hundred and fifty-nine, and of the Independence of the Philippines, the thirteenth.
