A precondition for the Administration to provide endorsement of certificates is a subsequent confirmation by the Maritime Safety Committee of International Maritime Organization (IMO) that full and complete effect is given by the Certificate-issuing Party to the provisions of the STCW Convention.

ARTICLE 3

The Certificate-issuing Party assures that the education, training and assessment of seafarers are administered and monitored in accordance with the provisions of Section A-I/6 of the STCW Code, confirms maintenance of registers of certificates, certificates of competency, endorsements, also confirms that information on the status of such certificates, endorsements and dispensations can be obtained according to Regulation I/9 of the STCW Convention.

The Certificate-issuing Party assures that those in their country who are responsible for such training and assessment are appropriately qualified for the type and level of training and assessment involved in accordance with the provisions of Section A-I/6 of the STCW Code.

ARTICLE 4

The Certificate-issuing Party, in accordance with subparagraph 1 of paragraph 1 of Regulation I/10 of the Convention on the request of the Administration, provides an opportunity to undertake inspections of their training centers, including related procedures if it deems necessary.

The Certificate-issuing Party will give the Administration access to the results of quality standards assessment in accordance with Regulation I/8 of the Convention.

The Certificate-issuing Party, within 30 (thirty) days, will notify the Administration of any significant changes in the arrangements for training and certification provided in compliance with the STCW Convention.

The Administration, within 60 (sixty) days, will communicate to the Certificate-issuing Party results of evaluation carried out pursuant to the above paragraphs of this Article.

ARTICLE 5

The Certificate-issuing Party shall establish measures to ensure that seafarers, whom endorsements are issued, acquire an appropriate knowledge of legislation relevant to the functions they are permitted to perform.

ARTICLE 6

The Administration may refuse, suspend, revoke or otherwise withdraw its endorsement of recognition of a certificate issued by the Certificate-issuing Party for disciplinary reasons, and will inform the Certificate-issuing Party of such circumstances.

ARTICLE 7

Any dispute between the Administration and Certificate-issuing Party arising out of this Memorandum of Undertaking shall be settled by consultations or negotiations, through diplomatic channels.
