ALL JUDGES AND COURT PERSONNEL OF THE FIRST AND SECOND LEVEL COURTS, AND OFFICIALS AND PERSONNEL OF THE OFFICE OF THE COURT ADMINISTRATOR

RE :

THE NEW NORMAL: CYBERSECURITY IN A COVID-FREE, MALWARE-FREE JUDICIARY

On 12 May 2020, at 3:00 p.m., the Office of the Chief Justice, in coordination with the Philippine Judicial Academy and the Office of the Court Administrator, and with the support of TrendMicro, a global leader in cybersecurity, actively collaborating with the Interpol and law enforcement authorities across the world, will conduct a webinar for judges and court personnel entitled, "The New Normal: Cybersecurity in a Covid-free, Malware-free Judiciary."

This is in relation with the nationwide distribution of Philippine Judiciary 365 platform which now enables all court stations across the country to receive pleadings electronically and select courts in key cities to conduct videoconferencing hearings.

The one-hour webinar will be hosted on the Judiciary 365 platform and will focus on the current cyber threats and trends, red flag indicators, and security and safety - the do's and don'ts - especially when working from home.

The attendance of ALL judges, clerks of court of the offices of the clerks of court, branch clerks of court, and stenographers, both permanent and contractual is MANDATORY.

All other court officials and personnel are invited and encouraged to attend.

The Philippine Judiciary Academy will send the link for registration to the Clerks of Court of all court stations, who shall in turn disseminate the same to all judges and court personnel concerned. ALL attendees MUST REGISTER through the said link.

Those who have been issued with Judiciary 365 accounts should use the same in registering their attendance to the webinar.

Registered attendees will receive an email on Tuesday morning, 12 May 2020, containing the link to the webinar.

For the guidance and information of all concerned.

Makati City, 8 May 2020.
