RULE 31. Automatic Registration. — All practicing Interior Designers who are registered in accordance with Board of Architecture Resolution No. 21, s. 1982, creating the Specialty Board of Interior Design issued on July 20, 1982 duly approved by the Chairman of the Professional Regulation Commission and other resolutions issued by the Board of Architecture and approved by the Commission, with current licenses are hereby automatically registered as Interior Designers under RA No. 8534 without need of filing application for registration. However, they shall pay the registration fee for the issuance of their registration certificates by the Board created under RA 8534. They shall renew their licenses upon expiration to continue with the practice of their profession.

Those Interior Designers who are registered but who are not practicing their profession or who are shown to be delinquent in the payment of their licenses fees at the time RA No. 8534 took effect must register by filing an application. There shall be no deadline for the filing of such application. They shall also be registered upon payment of the prescribed fees, including penalties, if any, and shall be issued new certificates of registration and professional licenses.

RULE 32. Registration of Successful Examinees. — All those who passed the licensure examination for Interior Designers shall, unless specifically deferred for cause by the Board, be registered after taking the oath of a professional before the members of the Board or any person authorized by law to administer oaths and upon payment of the prescribed fees.

RULE 33. Issuance of Certificate of Registration and Professional License. — Upon compliance with all the requirements for registration, the Interior Designer shall sign the roll of Interior Designers after his name is entered therein. He shall be issued the certificate of registration and the corresponding professional license upon payment of the prescribed fees.

RULE 34. Renewal of Professional License. — The professional license issued to an Interior Designer shall be valid for a period of three (3) years from its issuance and shall be renewed every three (3) years on the birth month of the Interior Designer upon payment of fees.

RULE 35. Temporary Removal from the Roll of Interior Designers. — An Interior Designer who has been delinquent in the payment of his license fees for five (5) consecutive years from the year it was suspended and his name shall be dropped from the Roll of Interior Designers for not having been in good standing and may be reinstated only upon application and payment of the delinquent license fees and surcharges and the fee for registration without examination.

RULE 36. Lifting of Deferment of Registration. — If the cause for the deferment of the registration of the successful examinee has been complied with, the examinee shall be allowed to register as Interior Designer.

RULE 37. Registration Without Examination. — The following may also register as Interior Designers without examination:

(a) Persons who, before the effectivity of RA No. 8534, have taken and earned at least sixty (60) units of interior design in a school, college or university recognized by the government and has practiced interior design for at least ten (10) years prior to the effectivity of RA No. 8534.

(b) Registered and duly licensed architects who had been practicing interior design for at least ten (10) years before the effectivity of RA No. 8534.

Persons who fall under Sub-paragraph (a) above shall file application accompanied by authentic or authenticated copies of the following documents:

(1) Transcript of records issued by a school, college or university established or recognized by the Government showing that the applicant has taken and earned at least sixty (60) units of Interior Design ten (10) years before the effectivity of RA No. 8534, and

(2) If the applicant has been employed as interior designer, certification under oath of owner or manager of firm, company or entity attesting to the fact that the applicant has performed the duties and functions of an Interior Designer for a period of at least ten (10) years before the effectivity of RA No. 8534 or if the applicant has practiced Interior Design, at least one (1) copy of plan of Interior Design of building/s duly signed and sealed by him or at least one (1) copy of contract entered into by the applicant with owner of the building for every year of practice of Interior Design for at least ten (10) years before the effectivity of RA No. 8534.

Persons who fall under Sub-paragraph (b) shall file application accompanied by authentic or authenticated copies of the following documents:

(1) Copy of certificate of registration as architect and copy of current professional license as architect, and

(2) Any of the documents adverted to in Sub-paragraph [2] of the immediately preceding paragraph.

RULE 38. Reinstatement of Certificate of Registration. — The Board may, upon application or petition and on reasons of equity and justice, may reinstate the validity of a revoked certificate of registration and professional license, upon payment of the required fees after at least two (2) years from date of revocation.

RULE 39. Replacement of Certificates. — Upon payment of the required fee, a new certificate of registration may be issued to replace any lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate.

Article VIII

RULE 47. Seal of Interior Designers. — Every Interior Designer shall obtain a seal whose design shall be adopted and approved by the Board.

A duly registered Interior Designer shall affix his seal on all plans and specifications prepared by or under his direct supervision.

The Interior Designer shall likewise indicate his professional license number, place and date of issue on documents he signs, affixes his seal and issues in connection with the practice of his profession.

Article XIII

Prohibitions, Enforcement and Penalties

RULE 48. Prohibitions. — (1) No person shall stamp or seal any document with the seal of an Interior Designer after his professional license has expired or lost its validity unless he has been reinstated to practice and/or unless his license has been renewed.

(2) No officer or employee of the government, chartered cities, provinces and municipalities charged with the enforcement of laws, ordinances or regulation relative to the construction or alteration of the interiors of buildings shall accept or endorse any interior plans or specifications which have not been prepared and submitted in full record with the provisions of RA 8534; nor shall any payment be approved by any officer for such work, the plans and specifications of which have not been so prepared, signed and sealed by a duly licensed Interior Designer.

(3) No Interior Designer shall sign his name, affix his seal or use any other method of signature on plans, specifications or other documents made by or under another Interior Designer's supervision unless the same is made in such a manner as to clearly indicate the part of such work actually performed by him.

(4) No person except the Interior Designer in charge shall sign for any branch of work or any function of interior design practice not actually performed by him.

(5) No person, without the written consent of the Interior Designer or author of said documents, shall duplicate or make copies of said documents for use in the repetition of and for other projects or buildings, whether executed partly or in whole.

RULE 49. Enforcement. — The Commission through its legal and hearing officers, shall conduct investigation of complaints on any violation of the provisions of RA No. 8534 including violations of the rules and regulations issued thereunder and the Code of Ethics for Interior Designers and, if the acts complained of constitutes a criminal offense and the evidence so warrant, to forward the records of the case to the appropriate offices of city or provincial prosecutors for the prosecution of the violators. If the acts complained of would warrant the imposition of administrative sanctions, the respondent shall be proceeded against administratively before the Board in accordance with the pertinent provisions of the Rules and Regulations Governing the Regulation and Practice of Professionals, as amended.

RULE 50. Penalties. — Aside from the administrative sanctions imposed under RA No. 8534, any person who violates any of the provisions of the said Act shall, upon conviction, be penalized by a fine of not less than Fifty Thousand (P50,000.00) Pesos nor more than Two Hundred Thousand (P200,000.00) Pesos or imprisonment of not less than three (3) months or both fine and imprisonment at the direction of the Court.

Article XIV

Integration of Interior Designers

RULE 51. Integration of Interior Designers. — All Interior Designers shall be integrated into one (1) national organization which shall be recognized by the Board and accredited by the Commission as the one and only accredited integrated association to which all Interior Designers must be members without prejudice to their membership in other associations of Interior Designers. An Interior Designer duly registered with the Board shall automatically become a member of the accredited integrated national organization of Interior Designers. Membership in the accredited integrated organization shall not be a bar to membership in other associations of Interior Designers.

Article XV

Miscellaneous Provisions

RULE 52. Teaching of Interior Design. — All educational institutions of the tertiary level offering the course of Interior Design, whether public or private, are required to engage the services of a duly registered Interior Designer to teach the subjects of the course for licensure examination.

Teaching of Interior Design subjects constitutes practice of Interior Design as defined by RA No. 8534, hence, only duly registered Interior Designers should be allowed to teach Interior Design subjects. Provided, however, That persons who specialize in any of the subjects for licensure examination in Interior Design and are holders of master's and/or doctorate degrees in said subject/s shall be allowed to teach the subjects of their specialization without being registered and licensed as Interior Designers.
