In view of continuous requests for clarification of Memorandum Circular No. 12, the Tripartite Technical Working Group re-evaluated the attacks occurring within the Arabian Gulf together with the present market situation. After considering the interest and welfare of both sectors, Memorandum Circular No. 12 is hereby modified and henceforth all areas in the Arabian Gulf west of Longitude 56° are considered war risk. Seamen on Board trading vessels as defined in Circular No. 10 dated May 30, 1986 are entitled to a minimum 100% premium pay.

Manning agencies and their principals are hereby reminded to comply strictly with this circular.

This circular shall take effect on September 15, 1986.
